Architects For Juvenile Hall, Hospital Hired

The Marin County Board of Supervisors today entered into contracts with two Marin architectural firms for design of a 170-bed county hospital building and a 20-bed addition to the juvenile hall in Lucas Valley.

An estimate by County Administrator Donald A. Jensen placed the total architects' fees for the two projects at $108,400, $97,000 of which would be paid in the coming fiscal year.

The firm of Crawford and Banning of San Rafael will design the hospital, estimated cost of which is $1,155,000.

San Rafael architect Rolland B. Hammond is to design the juvenile hall addition, which is expected to cost $200,000.

Preliminary plans of both projects are due by June 15 under terms of the contracts.

Financing is to be arranged on a lease-purchase plan, the board decided some weeks ago. Jensen recommended today that the board declare its intent to include in the final county budget two balancing items, an expense item of $97,000 for the architects' fees and an offsetting revenue item of $97,000 representing proceeds of a loan under the lease-purchase arrangement.

This was finally done, after Supervisor William D. Fusselman objected. Fusselman said the expense item should go into the budget since the contracts were signed, but that there is not now any firm commitment of the loan to justify including the revenue item.

Brown Refuses To Commute Death Sentence Of Slayer

Gov. Edmund G. Brown will not commute the death sentence of Richard G. Riser, scheduled to die Friday in the San Quentin Prison gas chamber.

Brown heard Riser's attorney, Carl B. Shapiro of Fairfax, and Frank F. Pierson, district attorney of Stanislaus County, yesterday and announced today he saw no reason to halt the execution.

Shapiro asked executive clemency on the claim that Riser was denied due process of law because his lawyers were denied access to the statements of witnesses to the shooting of Earl and Pauline Hastings in a cafe robbery near

Check Pair Linked To Hotel Stickup

Two men from San Francisco, arrested last Saturday, trying to pass stolen travelers' checks in Marin City, may be linked to an armed robbery in San Francisco and theft of nine guns from a Mountain View store last week, Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos disclosed today.

Sheriff's Inspector William Bradley said a lineup at Marin County Jail last night indicates that Samuel Rover, 32, and

McElroy Will Stay On As Defense Chief

WASHINGTON (AP)—Neil H. McElroy said today he will stay on indefinitely as secretary of defense.

McElroy made the announcement to newsmen at the White House with his new deputy, Thomas S. Gates Jr., standing at his side.

They had just conferred with President Eisenhower.

"I have suspended my plans for departure," McElroy said. "I don't know when I will be leaving, if at all."

Asked whether that means he intends to stay in the cabinet indefinitely, McElroy replied that was the best way to put it.

Eisenhower yesterday picked Gates, who is retiring as secretary of the Navy at the end of the month, to succeed the late Donald A. Quarles as deputy secretary of defense.

Prior to Quarles' death McElroy had said several times that he wanted to leave his cabinet post by the end of the year to return to private business.

Oakdale on July 11, 1955. Shapiro also said there is serious question as to whether the jury reached the right conclusion as to who was the actual killer, Richard or his brother, Roscoe Riser.

Roscoe Riser drew a life term for robbery.

The state Supreme Court had upheld the conviction, with the late Justice Jesse W. Carter dissenting on the grounds that inspection of the witnesses' had been erroneously denied the defense.

Brown said "the governor can't make any legal determinations of these questions." He said the legal questions must be resolved by the courts.

James C. Johnson (alias Abdul-ahi El Khalifa Hamadallah), 31, held up the Plantation Hotel in San Francisco for $540 in cash and several checks. The victim identified the two as the men who held him up last Wednesday.

Two American Railway Express checks, for $40 and $95, which the pair tried to pass at Brice Brothers Market in Marin City Saturday, appear to be the ones stolen from the Plantation Hotel, said Bradley.

Sheriff's deputies also found four guns in the men's car. They claim they had bought the guns from an unidentified person in San Francisco. But Inspector Bradley contends the guns came from Lou's Gun Shop on El Camino Real in Mountain View, which was burglarized on May 11. Nine guns were taken in that haul.

Rover and Johnson are also wanted for forgery in San Francisco in addition to a charge of forgery and conspiracy to commit forgery at the Brice Brothers Market in Marin.

The pair was scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court with the public defender this afternoon.

Inspector Bradley says Johnson insists that Hamadallah is his real name, and it was "given to him by Allah."

Quentin Laundry Blaze Causes $1,000 Damage

A fire in San Quentin Prison's laundry yesterday caused a possible $1,000 damage before it was extinguished by an inmate fire squad.

Clothing was burned, along with some laundry baskets, but structural damage was limited to sorting tables and blistered paint, reported Associate Warden W. D. Achuff.

"There are two versions on the fire's cause," he said. "The fire department said it probably started from incinerator sparks, but G. G. Conway, chief of maintenance, attributed it to a smoldering cigarette."

Officer George Wuestefeld spotted the fire at 5:14 p.m. from his post on the prison wall. Prisoners had left their work in the laundry about 4 p.m.

DOVE TALE

Not Sweetly Falls The Gentle Coo

For, lo! the winter is past, the rain is over and gone; The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land.

Song of Solomon.

The voice of the turtle falls not sweetly upon the ears of some residents of Larkspur's Chanticleer avenue, and because of that the Larkspur Planning Commission — not Solomon—must sit in judgment tonight.

A little over a year ago, Jean McKay, a Redwood High School girl who likes birds, acquired a pair of doves to supplement her collection of eight parakeets.

Jean's father, F. H. McKay, built a dovecote at the rear of the home at 31 Chanticleer avenue.

But recently, two neighbors telephone City Manager Ronald E. Piper to complain that the cooing of the doves disturbs their sleep. (The birds aren't really turtle doves, explained Jean; but the planning commission has them down as turtle doves.)

Piper wrote McKay to call to his attention that a planning commission use permit is required for keeping "fowl"—including doves. McKay is to appear before the planning commission at its meeting tonight at the city hall.

Nobody has complained about the parakeets—"they don't make a sound," said McKay.

Mill Valley Man Charged With Hit-Run Driving

A 47-year-old Mill Valley carpenter was arrested by Corte Madera police yesterday afternoon on charges of misdemeanor hit-run driving and drunkenness arising from an 11:30 a.m. sideswipe accident at Corte Madera and Redwood avenues.

Officer Charles Newman said he discovered John Clyde of 422 Live Oak avenue hiding in the rear yard of the home of Dr. Dorothy L. Morse at 458 Redwood. Clyde's car, he said, was parked in Dr. Morse's garage.

Damaged in the morning accident was an auto driven by Mrs. T. A. Olsen of 70 Marina Vista avenue, Larkspur. Eye-witnesses told police the hit-run car proceeded up Redwood avenue after the mishap.

School Votes Draw Light Early Turnout

Only Mill Valley Has Busy Polls, Spot Check Finds

Campaigning was paying off today in the turnout of voters in Mill Valley School District — but whether it would pay off with approval of a $600,000 bond issue remained to be learned from tonight's vote count.

The polls will remain open in most districts until 7 p.m.

By noon, 118 of 871 persons eligible had cast ballots at Park School, one of the district's polling places which was checked in an Independent-Journal sampling. Election officials described this as exceptionally high for so early in the day.

INTENSIVE CAMPAIGN

Proponents of additional classrooms have conducted an intensive campaign for passage of the Mill Valley bond issue.

In other districts throughout the county, the morning balloting was light.

In San Rafael, where voting is on county board of education and Marin Junior College District members, with no local district election, only 28 out of 500 eligible had voted by noon at Coleman School, consolidated polling place for six precincts.

At Greenbrae School in the Kentfield District, which has a $500,000 bond issue and $300,000 state loan proposal on the ballot but no contest for trustees, 105 of about 1,200 eligible had voted by 12:30 p.m.

60 OUT OF 900

At the same hour, the vote at the Larkspur-Corte Madera School was 60 of about 900 registered. Larkspur District has a $267,000 bond issue at stake and a three-candidate contest for two board vacancies.

Only 30 of about 980 eligible had voted by noon at San Anselmo's Brookside School. Five candidates are after two openings on the San Anselmo board.

In Lagunitas, which has a three-way race for two board vacancies, only 34 out of about 850 eligible had voted by noon. In Novato, with two candidates out for a single opening on the board, Marion School reported 32 out of 1,000 eligible voters had balloted by noon, and Novato High School reported only seven ballots cast with some 450 eligible.

LIGHT IN SAUSALITO

The voting was similarly light in Sausalito, where there are three candidates for two trusteeships. At the city hall, 38 had voted out of some 750; at Central School, 40 out of about 600.

Besides the bond issues in Mill Valley, Kentfield and Larkspur district, five school districts have tax proposals on the ballot. Increases are sought in Ross, Stinson Beach, Lincoln and Union District. San Quentin District needs voter authorization to continue an increase which was approved for one year in 1958.

School Graduates See State Capitol

The five members of Marin County Day School's first eighth grade graduating class toured the capitol in Sacramento today.

The members chose the Sacramento trip as their "graduation play day." They are Jamie Beckett, Stephani Getz, Ian Boussy, Barnes Boffey and Alex Lakusta. Mr. and Mrs. John C. Beckett accompanied them on the trip.

No Summit Under Duress, U.S. Vows

Combined AP & UPI GENEVA—The United States has told the Russians flatly that President Eisenhower would not attend any summit conference under threat of new Soviet ultimatum on Berlin, it was disclosed today.

The Western foreign ministers resumed the fight for their cold war package peace plan when the Big Four conference opened its seventh working session today.

The West was pressing its campaign against the Soviet Union's proposed German peace treaty, arguing there can be no pact without unification of Germany.

WEATHER MAN SAYS FAIR AND WARMER

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Fair weather with slightly higher temperatures is indicated for almost all of California today and tomorrow, the Weather Bureau said.

There is a possibility, however, of a few showers in the extreme north.

Few Casting Votes On Soil District

Two election judges, a clerk and an inspector twiddled their thumbs all morning at the Stinson Beach Community Center, one of four polling places for an election to create a soil conservation district out of 295,000 Marin acres.

At noon, not a single vote had been cast.

Things were a little better at the Novato Firehouse polling place. Fifteen land owners had balloted there by mid-day.

Other polling places are at the Tomales Town Hall and Foresters' Hall in Point Reyes Station. All will remain open until 7 p.m.

The election is to authorize the soil conservation district and elect five directors from a field of eight candidates. Only land owners are permitted to vote.

The district would include virtually all of the county except the heavily populated South Marin, Ross Valley and San Rafael areas.

Woman Sentenced For Bad Check Faces New Charge

Mrs. Lois Elizabeth Pickart, 36-year-old former San Anselmo secretary, drew a 15-day jail term and three years' probation yesterday for passing a bad check in San Anselmo last December.

As she walked out of Judge Albert F. Scheidecker's Marin Municipal Court and entered the elevator to head for the basement jail, Asst. Police chief Sam N. Serio stepped in the elevator with her and handed her a new complaint. Bakersfield police want Mrs. Pickart for a check forgery, with bail set at $3,000.

Serio said Mrs. Pickart, who now lives in Hayward, passed about $440 worth of bad checks in San Anselmo last December. Bakersfield police say they believe Mrs. Pickart is the person who used the name Betty Lou Russell to forge checks there.

Margaret Truman Has Second Son

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Clifton Daniel, daughter of former President and Mrs. Harry E. Truman, gave birth to her second son today.

The baby was delivered by Caesarean section at 8:45 a.m. in Doctor's Hospital. He weighed 7 pounds, 3 ounces. No name has yet been selected.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko replied by insisting that peace treaties with East and West Germany are "gently needed."

He again denounced the Western package proposal linking a German settlement with European security and disarmament measures.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd declared that it was "useless and indeed unjust" for the Soviet Union to try to "impose" on Germany a treaty which, Lloyd said, would saddle the German people "with certain discriminatory servitudes."

He referred to provisions which would regulate political activity inside West Germany and force it to sever its links with the Western Allies.

A West German spokesman, ambassador Wilhelm Grewe, declared acceptance of political

San Rafael Moves To Widen Roads

San Rafael will begin acquiring land to widen Third street and San Pedro road from Irwin street eastward, with the help of the county.

City councilmen last night authorized Public Works Director Norris Rawles and City Engineer Dominic Selmi to work with the county public works department on the land acquisition. The city wants an 86-foot right of way for the widening. City fathers said they would use what money is available to get land on the stretch between Grand avenue and Marina court.

Rawles and Selmi asked for purchase of land from Montecito Properties to connect Second street with San Pedro road. But councilmen said the cost would be too high, and the money could be better spent on the rest of San Pedro road.

Mayor John F. McInnis pointed out that Second street could connect to San Pedro road via a jog on Grand avenue instead of cutting across Montecito Properties land.

About $100,000 is available now for the Third street widening. Since the street is partly in the city limits and partly in county, the city and the county contributed $50,000 each last year. This year, Mayor Mc-

Strauss Gets Senate Unit Nod, 9 To 8

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower's controversial nomination of Lewis L. Strauss as secretary of commerce squeaked through the Senate Commerce Committee today by a one-vote margin.

The vote was 9 to 8, with three committee Democrats joining its six Republicans to outvote Strauss opponents—all Democrats.

Strauss, who had clashed repeatedly with most Democratic members during 16 days of hearings on the appointment, issued a one-sentence comment:

"I am grateful for the vote of the committee."

He was headed for more trouble when the nomination reaches the floor, possibly later this month. Neither side would forecast the outcome.

While some members expected a long floor fight on the appointment, Chairman Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.) of the Commerce Committee, who opposed Strauss, said he did not expect it to last too long.

Among the Democrats who voted against Strauss was Sen. Clair Engle of California.

Innis said he hopes the county will again match the city's $50,000 contribution, thus making a total of $200,000 available in the fund for the widening.

The mayor went before the county board of supervisors yesterday to point out the need for widening San Pedro road and the benefits to both county and city. The supervisors referred the matter to Marvin W. Brigham, county public works director.

Judge Rules For Sausalito In Sewer Row

The City of Sausalito yesterday won another round in its legal fight to halt the flow of sewage into Richardson Bay.

Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court ordered Sausalito shipbuilder Donlon Arques to stop using three small apartments at Marinship for human habitation after July 18, unless the apartments are tied into a city sewer system. The apartments, on Slipways 2 and 3, are connected to an old Army Corps of Engineers storm drain system that flows into the bay.

Sausalito City Atty. John B. Ehlen called Low Chan, county sanitarian, and engineer John C. Oglesby to show that sewage is running into the bay.

Judge Keating continued the case until July 6 for further hearing to determine whether some other method can be used to handle the sewer than to tie in with the Bridgeway sewer line, which is about 1,000 feet from Arques' Marinship property.

Wallace S. Myers, attorney for Arques, pointed out that Arques must lay sewer lines around other persons' property to reach the Bridgeway line.

Power Cut Off By Falling Tree

Electrical power to about 20 Woodacre homes was interrupted yesterday when a 12,000-volt line was damaged by a falling redwood tree on San Geronimo Valley road. The tree, measuring approximately 18 inches in diameter, was apparently toppled by winds.

Service was off from 11:15 a.m. to 2:40 p.m., reported Ralph Brisbin, assistant supervisor of Pacific Gas and Electric Co.'s office in San Rafael.

The electrical wires set off a small brush fire, which was extinguished by Marin County Fire Department. Firemen stood by until the PG&E repair crew arrived.

Dulles Continuing To Grow Weaker

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former Secretary of State John Foster Dulles was reported today continuing to grow weaker in his fight against cancer and pneumonia.

The State Department said he was being given sedation and was generally comfortable.

The medical bulletin was the third in two weeks to report a weakening of Dulles' condition.

Dulles was reported to be conscious but sleeping much of the time because of the pain-killing drugs which are being administered.

Lincoln White, State Department press officer, denied at a news conference reports that Dulles was in a coma.

Dulles' friends expect he may lose his fight for life within a matter of days. Doctors attending him regard it as impossible to forecast how long he may last now that his cancer is in an advanced stage.

Members of his family have gathered in Washington and are frequent visitors at his bedside.

The former secretary of state took a turn for the worse Friday after an attack of pneumonia.

Utility Election Winners Seated

The retiring board of the Bolinas Public Utility District held a special meeting last night at which the district's three new directors were certified as elected.

New members are Lewis G. Pepper and Sherman R. Smith. They succeed Samuel H. Mostovoy and R. Warren Warren McKinney.

Bourne was re-elected to the board. He said a new chairman is expected to be named at the June 1 meeting.

Gambling Suspects Deny Charges

Two men from Marin City, charged with gambling with dice, denied the charge yesterday and demanded a trial.

Jeff Cook, 48, of House C-42, Apartment 329, and George King Jr., 49, of A-31, Apartment 245, will get a non-jury trial at 4 p.m. tomorrow in Marin Municipal Court.

Sheriff's deputies arrested the two Friday night at Building B-2.

Mrs. Truman Progressing After Surgery

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Mrs. Harry S. Truman, 74, rallied today from effects of surgery for removal of a breast tumor.

Her condition was reported "very good" by a Research Hospital spokesman. He said she had had a restless night, but that was not too unusual.

Truman called the hospital this morning to tell her that she was a grandmother for the second time. Their daughter, Mrs. Clifford Daniel, gave birth to her second son in New York this morning.

Mrs. Truman entered the hospital last Thursday for observation and underwent the operation Monday morning.

Tests were being made to determine whether the tumor was malignant. Results of the biopsy probably will not be known for two or three days.

Former President Truman, showing the strain of a long day, seemed in good spirits when he went home from the hospital last night.

"She seemed to be a little groggy from the effects of the medication during the day," Truman said. "The doctors have assured us that everything is going well after the operation."

According to the latest figure, approximately 1,500,000 people enter the work force of the United States annually. Eighty-two per cent of these working men and women read a newspaper every day.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Jazzman Buried
PARIS (UPI)—Jazzman Sidney Bechet was buried today with only a heavy rain beating out a mournful accompaniment.

Plans of musician friends to play the blues in an old-fashioned New Orleans tail-gate funeral procession were canceled at the request of Bechet's estranged wife, Elizabeth. She didn't feel such a funeral would be "dignified."

Eddie, Liz To Cannes
CANNES, France (AP)—The Elizabeth Taylor-Eddie Fisher honeymoon yacht sailed lazily into Cannes early this morning with the newlyweds out of sight.

But the weather has turned gloomy on the French Riviera, and crewmen of the rented yacht Olmco said they would sail later today for Portofino, Italy.

The bride will miss a reunion with her three children in Nice. The children—by former husband Michael Wilding and Mike Todd—will pass through the airport there Thursday enroute to Italy. They may be reunited with mama there.

Judges Threatened
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Ten Superior Court officials, including seven judges, received letters warning: "You are on my list of death."

The letters were signed with the name of E. B. (Jet) Simrell, 48, who vigorously protested his wife's divorce action last year. Simrell's whereabouts are unknown. The letters were received yesterday.

Each letter also was accompanied by demands that articles by the writer—criticizing judges for favoring women in divorce cases—be published in newspapers.

Sheriff's deputies guarded the officials today.

Simrell was sent to a mental institution after he wrote newspapers March 4, 1958 saying: "You will find lying in bed, dead from a bullet in their head, my three kids and their mother..."

Police hurried to the address given and found three butchered kid goats and a mother goat packed in dry ice on Simrell's bed. At that time, his wife said Simrell was just "looking for publicity."

A jury adjudged Simrell sane April 30, 1958.

Convicts Cut Selves

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP)—Eight tough, long-term convicts at a prison camp for incorrigibles chose self mutilation as a means of registering complaints yesterday.

State Prisons Director William Bailey said three cut off a part of their little fingers, and five injured themselves with sledge hammers.

"They wanted television, store privileges and they fussed about the food," Bailey said.

The incident occurred at Ivy Bluff camp in Caswell County. The men were brought to Central Prison Hospital here for treatment.

Two Missiles Blow Up
CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—An Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile ruptured in a brilliant burst of orange flame and a Polaris test rocket petered out shortly after they were launched last night.

The mishaps were the latest in a series of troubles for the Atlas and ended a streak of two straight successes for the Polaris.

The 80-foot Atlas made what appeared to be a smooth lift-off at 11:30 p.m., but 60 seconds later the huge rocket exploded with a roar that resounded over the Cape.

Five hours earlier the Polaris sped aloft in its eighth flight test, but the solid fuel missile's second stage failed to ignite.

Mick's A Brick, But...

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Mickey Cohen says Candy is dandy. And Candy Barr says the Mick is a brick.

But the pudgy ex-gambler and the blonde stripteaseer now say they aren't planning marriage.

"We have different standards of living and different ways of life," Cohen said yesterday.

"He's nice," chimed in Miss Barr at the joint press conference, "but we just weren't meant for each other."

Miss Barr, under a 15-year prison sentence in Texas for narcotics possession, didn't say yes, and didn't say no when Cohen told reporters recently that he planned to marry her. Cohen said he still plans to keep her from going to prison.

Chiang May Run Again

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—President Chiang Kai-shek, 72, is reported to have left the door open for a third six-year term when his present one expires next May. Nationalist China's leader was said to have told his Kuomintang party that he had no desire to make the Communists happy by quitting the presidency.

Nonsense Admitted

TRENTON, N. J. (UPI)—The New Jersey State Assembly admitted last night that at least half of the platforms of political parties are "nonsense."

The assembly voted 49 to 0 to limit state party conventions to one every two years and thus "eliminate the nonsense platforms" written in non-election years.

Israel Frees Airliner

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Israel released a Lebanese airliner last night a few hours after forcing it down on a flight carrying 27 members of the U.N. Middle East police force on vacation.

The C47 was released after the three Lebanese crewmen were questioned.

Israeli fighters intercepted the plane over the Mediterranean while it was carrying 15 Yugoslav and 12 Indian soldiers from the Sinai desert for a week's leave in the Lebanon mountains.

ROAD WASHOUT PROVES DEATH TRAP

Overflowing irrigation water chewed the sandy ground from under a country road near Salt Lake City yesterday, leaving this hole, 30 feet deep, 67 feet long and 42 feet wide. Kingi Kurumada, 74, a farmer, hit the hole as he drove home from early morning chores. The car leaped across the hole, hit the side and dropped to the bottom, killing Kurumada. A newspaper delivery boy told police he drove over the road about three hours earlier and it was all right then. When he returned he found the hole with Kurumada's car at the bottom. (AP Wirephoto)

Flood Hits St. Joseph; Hundreds Homeless

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (UPI)—Hundreds of persons were driven from their homes last night when flash flood waters of Black Snake Creek turned streets into rivers in almost all of northeast St. Joseph.

At least one person drowned. The water receded late last night about as fast as it poured in, but the cleanup job will continue for days. Authorities feared they would find more bodies today as they cleared wreckage.

Water six feet deep poured into the streets of Industrial City, as the northeast section is called. Six inches of mud was left in houses and other buildings.

Heavy flooding also came to South St. Joseph from backed-up storm sewers. St. Joseph was under severe storm alert for several hours yesterday, last night and early today.

Police and firemen called for rescue boats. Residents waited atop cars and houses for the boats to get to them. Propane gas tanks were torn from some residences and floated down the streets. The rains totaled 3.25 inches.

Several private citizens answered the call for rescue boats to evacuate the several hundred residents of Industrial City. Civil defense units also helped.

The water receded rapidly

New Way To Store Blood Told

CHELSEA, Mass. (AP)—The Navy today took the wraps off a development which is expected to revolutionize storage and use of blood.

Hitherto red cells have had a usable life of not more than a month, often not more than 20 days.

But Navy medical officers disclosed more than 500 entirely successful transfusions have been made at the U.S. Naval Hospital here with blood stored anywhere from a month to two years, and they think two years will not long remain a limit.

Blood is transferred to a fractionator, which works on the same principle as a cream separator. The fractionator separates the red cells from other elements. The red cells then are mixed in glycerine and placed in a freezer. The glycerine prevents formation of ice crystals which would destroy the red cells.

Everything hinges on preserving the red cells. Storage of plasma poses no problem.

Rifle Range At Recreation Area Rejected

Directors of the Southern Marin Recreation Center last night decided not to build a rifle range on their property, according to secretary Fred G. DuPuis.

"Although we recognize the need for opportunities to shoot and that type of instruction, we feel there are other facilities in the county better able to fill that need," DuPuis said.

The matter has been pending since last fall, when the Reed Parents Club asked the recreation center to consider use of a portion of its property for a rifle range.

Directors heard a plan to construct a glass-paneled outdoor dining terrace between the main and wading pools. This was referred to the finance committee. The women's auxiliary to the recreation center offered to raise funds for the landscape plans.

QUICK DRAW CONTEST

Gunslingers Invited To Western Weekend

Novato's Western Weekend next month will be accented with gunfire in an event newly added to the annual celebration.

For the first time in Western Weekend history, gunslinging cowboys will match their skill in a quick-draw contest.

Six-shooters, loaded with blank ammunition—but noisy—will leave hip holsters quicker than the eye can follow in a contest expected to attract marksmen from throughout the state.

The gunmen will line up at the Patterson Ranch off Grant avenue across from Marion School for final eliminations at 10 a.m. June 20. There, one by one, they will walk to the firing line to race against time as they draw their weapons and fire at mounted balloons. The

Marin City Gets Ready For Vote

Members of the Marin City Tenants Council last night launched preparations for an election in July when six two-year terms and two one-year terms are to be filled.

A five-member committee was designated to prepare for the election.

Members granted the Village Chapel Church use of the auditorium Aug. 2 and 9 for its anniversary celebration, and accepted a check for $50 from the Marin Community Theater, representing profit from its production, "Take a Giant Step."

Actor Wayne, Wife Expecting Child

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor John Wayne, a grandfather, today said he and his wife, Pilar, are expecting their second child.

"We hope the baby will be a Christmas present," said Wayne, 52. "I don't care whether it's a boy, girl or triplets—just healthy."

The couple has a daughter, Aissa, 3. Wayne's daughter by a former marriage, Maria La Cava, gave birth to a girl last October.

Of the 1,718 daily newspapers in the United States, no two are alike.

Corte Madera Council Adopts Plan For Park

A development plan for the 22-acre Corte Madera Town Park was adopted by the town council last night after a 45-minute public hearing.

Purpose of the action was to prevent future councils from changing the plan without holding public hearings.

Bruce Goecker, parks and recreation commission member, said the plan was undergone only minor changes since it was prepared by Royston, Hanamoto fund and apply it next year toward purchase of fill. Councilman Albert E. Kogler was absent.

Councilman Walter S. Long, who offered the motion, termed it "very bad procedure" to budget money for a town agency, then take it away at the end of the fiscal year "because they've been discreet in handling it."

"As a matter of policy," said Mayor Roger F. Morse, "I just cannot commit myself to this type of budgeting on a piecemeal basis."

Councilman William R. Hansen voted with Long, declaring the park is "something special."

CONVENTION FEATURE

S. F. Speaker Wins Native Sons Contest

Thomas Seagrave of Riordan High School in San Francisco last night won the Native Sons of the Golden West 22nd annual oratorical contest at the close of the first day of the Native Sons' 82nd grand parlor in San Rafael.

Seagrave, coast counties district winner, competed with two other district champions in the statewide contest. He received a $1,000 savings bond, and carried back a trophy for his school.

Dean Gargaro of Loyola High School, Los Angeles County, was second. He won a $500 bond and a trophy for his school. Third was Nikki Nicholson of Lodi Union High School, who received a trophy for her school and a $250 bond.

Seagrave spoke on participation by volunteers from California in the Grand Army of the Republic during the Civil War.

Gargaro chose the Donner Party as his subject, and Miss Nicholson spoke on the San Francisco earthquake and fire of 1906.

They were judged on presentation, delivery, subject matter and stage presence.

Raymond H. Shone of San Rafael, grand president of the Native Sons, presented the bonds. William Pasley presented Gargaro's trophy, past grand president Larry J. LaFleur presented Seagrave's, and grand marshal Frank S. Christy presented Miss Nicholson's.

Miss Nicholson was winner in the interior valley district, and Gargaro in the Southern California district.

The speakers were introduced by Joseph C. Oeschger of Redwood City.

Judges were Marin Superior Judge N. Charles Brusatori;

San Rafael Acts To Annex Large Area

San Rafael took formal action last night that will extend the city's northern limits to Terra Linda a month from now.

The annexation of the 1,090-acre "Freitas ranch" was tentatively approved last May 4. The formal ordinance was passed last night 4 to 1, with Councilman Fred E. Hensen dissenting. The ordinance goes into effect in 30 days.

The city council also:

1. Authorized the city manager to see if anyone else wants to lease city property on Francisco boulevard near the city corporation yard, which is leased by General Petroleum Corp. The oil firm is vacating the premises, and Emil Bugna, auto dealer, wants to rent the space for $300 per month. The council put off a decision until June 1 at suggestion of Mayor John F. McDaniel.

2. Heard Benjamin F. Linsky, air pollution control officer for the Bay Area, explain the functions of pollution control. He and other officials were introduced by Mayor Arthur Kannez of Ross, who is one of Marin's representatives on the pollution control board.

3. Decided to meet with the recreation and park commission Monday at 7:30 p.m. to discuss the proposed recreation center at Albi Field.

4. Overruled the planning commission on two matters and granted the following: A six-foot fence over a three-foot retaining wall for Peter Berton at 69 Ridgewood avenue, Rafael Highlands; a use permit to convert a duplex into a triplex at 628 E street for Ida Sartorio. The planning commission had denied the use permit on grounds that the city had established a 17-foot setback line on First street back in 1952 for "future widening" of First street. The Sartorio house comes with that setback line.

Church Awaits Talk Tomorrow

Dr. F. S. Wichman, senior staff member at the Presbyterian Community Center in San Francisco's Chinatown, will discuss operation of the center during the evening program at Christ Presbyterian Church, Terra Linda, at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Dr. Wichman is on the staff of Donaldina Cameron House, a Chinese community center founded in 1873 which now carries on a wide program of group activities and charitable work.

30 Protest Five-Lot Tract Proposed In San Anselmo

About 30 persons protested last night against a five-lot San Anselmo subdivision in the Barber tract at the end of Alta Vista, proposed by Alice and Peter Cadoux of 400 Murray avenue, Kentfield.

The San Anselmo Planning Commission postponed action on the proposed subdivision until its June 15 meeting, to get recommendations from City Engineer John C. Oglesby.

The protesting delegation objected to the 5,000-square-foot minimum lot size when other lots nearby are near one acre in size. The protesters said because of narrow roads in the area the new development would create additional fire and traffic hazards.

Action was postponed until June 15 on a 19-lot subdivision at the head of Woodside drive in Woodland Park 2 proposed by Frank Cherne, San Anselmo real estate man. The commission asked Cherne to confer with the city engineer.

A 3-3 tie vote on division of a long narrow lot at 82 Oak Knoll avenue, owned by Norman Swall, prompted the commission to request that his application be resubmitted at the next meeting. Objections were raised to a 13-foot easement leading to a proposed rear lot.

The planning commission approved division of Robert Cary's lot on Oak avenue opposite Gerlach road, reported Mrs. Catherine Wolcott, commission secretary.

Couple Hurt In Collision Improves

Mr. and Mrs. Victor G. Iacovetto of Marinwood, who were severely injured Sunday in a San Francisco automobile collision which took the life of Mrs. Iacovetto's mother, Mrs. Elley Gilmeister, were reported in "fairly good" condition today at Kaiser Hospital in San Francisco.

Mrs. Iacovetto, 24, who suffered head injuries, was considered only "fair" yesterday. Her husband, 28, suffered a fractured collarbone. Their 17-month-old daughter, Roxanne, was still described as "fair" today with head injuries and a fractured leg.

The driver of the other vehicle, William C. Hubenette, 18, of San Francisco suffered minor injuries, and his passenger, Jill M. Hosmer, 17, also of San Francisco, a fractured right leg and extensive abrasions. Her condition was described as "good" today at the same hospital.

Council Cool To Apartment Lot Size Rule

A Sausalito Planning Commission proposal to require 2,500 square feet of lot area for each apartment in multiple dwellings won little support at last night's Sausalito City Council meeting.

There is now no minimum lot area for apartment units in Sausalito. The planners recommended the 2,500-foot minimum to alleviate "the ever-increasing density problem."

Mrs. Ruth Sisson, planning commission chairman, said the figure was suggested in planning consultant Sydney N. Williams' master plan for Sausalito.

Land developer Bob Rose, attacked the figure, pointing out that only 2,000 square feet per unit is required for duplexes.

Councilman Philip S. Ehrlich Jr., a former planner, defended the proposal as an effort to cope with community changes.

Action was deferred until June 16, when a public hearing will be held.

Lang Hints He'll Abandon Waldo Apartment Plan

Idealism and economics crashed headon at the Sausalito City Council meeting last night, with a proposed 70-apartment project on Waldo Point the cause of it all.

Rudy Lang Jr. of San Rafael had previously announced plans for a $400,000 apartment development at the tip of Waldo Point, to be built for Helen Louise Conser. He asked Sausalito to annex the 68,000 square foot area and zone it for apartment construction.

The planning commission last night recommended this be done but attached five conditions which Lang claimed would likely cancel his plan.

The planners suggested a minimum 2,500 square feet land area per dwelling unit; one to one and a half parking spaces; maximum lot coverage of 30 per cent, underground utilities, and site improvements according to city standards.

"If these are required," Lang protested, "we will withdraw this request for annexation."

Lang said he had planned about 1,000 feet per unit, one-for-one parking and lot coverage of 40 per cent. Underground facilities would be impossible, he said, but site improvements would be made according to city specifications.

"It looks to me as if the planners don't want him and just lowered the boom," commented Councilman George E. Keeney.

This caused Planning Commission Secretary Ruth Sisson to retort: "That's not true, Mr. Keeney. It's just that it gives the city an opportunity to create ideal control at an entrance."

The council set a public hearing on the proposal for July 7.

The Sausalito council also:

1. Set for June 16 opening of bids on paving a portion of Glen drive, estimated to cost $2,160.
2. Gave tentative approval to an agreement with Mark-A-Line, Inc., a metered public parking lot on the city's Bridgeway property.
3. Introduced a revised purchasing procedure ordinance.
4. Introduced an ordinance permitting impounding of vehicles left standing on city streets over five days.
5. Approved issuance of a warrant for $2,518 to Harry Braun as a down payment on newly acquired property for firehouse expansion.
6. Warned owner Sam Zakessian that if debris on his property at the foot of Locust street is not removed by May 26, a permit for added construction on his property on Turney street will be revoked.
7. Postponed action on appointments to the recreation commission.

Kentfield Teachers Get Salary Increase

Four trustees of the Kentfield School District boosted teachers' salaries last night with increases on a new salary schedule ranging from $200 to $1,000.

The new Kentfield salary schedule starts at $4,600 and goes up to $8,000. To qualify for the $8,000 salary, a teacher must have a bachelor's degree, 60 additional college units, and 10 years experience. Previous top teacher salary was $7,000.

The new salary schedule is included in a 1959-60 preliminary budget of $529,000 approved last night. The budget is predicated on the district's general fund tax limit of $1.75 per $100 assessed valuation.

Certain items in the budget:

'Copter Saves 3 After Boat Sinks

RODEO (P)—A Coast Guard helicopter plucked two Oakland policemen and a 12-year-old boy out of San Pablo Bay yesterday afternoon after their 35-foot cabin cruiser split a seam in rough water and sank.

Rescued after floating in life preservers for 50 minutes were Patrolman Robert McNair of Hayward, Sgt. Farren Sutter of Castro Valley and McNair's son, Phillip.

Charles A. Peabody, former commodore of the Vallejo Yacht Club, saw the craft founder while surveying the bay with binoculars from his home here and called the Coast Guard.

Church's Bid For Rezoning Meets Delay

The application of San Rafael's First Congregational Church for rezoning of a portion of its new church site north of San Rafael ran into a delay yesterday.

The county planning commission deferred action pending a review of the county zoning ordinance.

The church asks zoning to permit apartments on a three-quarter-acre portion of its property on Merrydale road. Sale of the rezoned area would aid the church in its building program, it was indicated.

On recommendation of the planning staff, the commission set the matter over to June 22. In the interim, the staff is to review the multiple residential portion of the zoning law, which both staff and commission have termed inadequate.

The commission also:

1. Approved with conditions, plans of the Westminster Presbyterian Church for a church on the south side of Tiburon boulevard opposite Bel Aire Estates.
2. Approved, with conditions, plans for a bowling alley east of Highway 101 north of Hamilton Air Force Base.
3. Approved map of Horseshoe Hill subdivision east of upper Bolinas-Olema road in West Marin. Only three lots are proposed in the seven-and-one-half-acre subdivision, to be developed by Gene McDaniel.
4. Denied application of Alfred Bellucci for multiple residential zoning for a 135-by-150 foot lot east of South Novato boulevard. Vote was 5-1. Commissioner George Scott dissenting.
5. Scheduled its next two meetings for 9 a.m. June 1 and June 22.

Harriman Wants To Travel In China

WASHINGTON (P)—Former New York Gov. W. Averell Harriman has applied for permission to enter Communist China as a newspaper correspondent.

Harriman now is touring the Soviet Union as a private citizen. He would represent the North American Newspaper Alliance in Red China.

The State Department said it has taken the request under advisement.

11 Months' Jail For Tiburon Youth

Thomas F. Conner, 20, of 1785 Centro West, Tiburon, must spend 11 months in county jail and remain on three years' probation for breaking into an Alto lumber company. Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court sentenced Conner yesterday for second degree burglary. Sheriff's deputies, who arrested Conner last month, said the youth also admitted a car theft and a series of gasoline thefts.

The judge ordered Conner to make full restitution for damages or losses sustained by his victims.

School Meeting

Budget, salary and policy matters will be discussed at a special meeting of trustees of the Novato Unified School District at 8 o'clock tonight in district administration offices.

Yacht Club's Project Receives Approval

Corinthian Yacht Club's plans for a breakwater and boat-berthing development in Tiburon Cove received conditional approval of the county planning commission yesterday.

A major condition is that berths be limited to the number of parking spaces available, a requirement which would cut the number to 60 from the 68 to 75 requested by the club.

Other conditions are: Shortening the breakwater to permit easy access to the cove by small boats, not extending the breakwater into an existing deep-water channel, approval of the plan by the Army Corps of Engineers and approval of state water pollution control authorities as far as sewage disposal plans are concerned.

The conditions limiting the length of the breakwater were imposed to meet objections of the City of Belvedere, which notified the planners by letter that it opposed the club's plan because the breakwater would impede boat access to Belvedere Cove and might cause silting of the cove.

The requirement of water pollution control board approval was inserted to meet objections of the Tiburon Sanitary District, which asked that sewage disposal facilities be included in any harbor development plan which the planners approved.

The commission deferred to June 1 consideration of another plan for a development in Tiburon Cove: The ambitious plan of Milton Tonini of Ross for a 90-berth harbor, shops, apartments and a fueling dock.

The Tonini development would be on water frontage along Paradise drive between Tiburon's Main street and the Northwestern Pacific ferry slip.

NMWD Meeting

HAFB Chapel Will Open Tomorrow

The newly completed $250,000 Hamilton Air Force Base chapel will be officially opened at 4:30 p.m. tomorrow, it was announced today by Capt. Laurence H. Withington, base chaplain.

The mission-styled chapel, under construction since April, 1958, by the W. H. McDevitt Co. of San Rafael, passed its final inspection last week by the Army Corps of Engineers and the base installations engineers.

Leading clergymen of Marin County, Air Force chaplains from seven western states, and chaplains from Army, Navy and Marine Corps bases throughout the Bay Area have been invited to attend the formal opening, Capt Withington said.

Special guest speaker will be Maj. Gen. Terence P. Finnegan, chief of Air Force chaplains. He will attend the first regional conference of Air Force chaplains tomorrow through Thursday at Hamilton, for base chaplains and their staff chaplains from the western United States.

The new chapel has a 365-seat capacity, four classrooms, a choir room, a sacristy, a waiting room and offices for the chaplain and his staff.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market advanced unevenly in moderate trading late this afternoon. Sugar shares declined.

Volume for the day was estimated at 3,400,000 shares compared with 2,970,000 yesterday.

Pivotal issues rose from fraction to about a point. There were scattered losers.

Sugar stocks retreated on news of the Cuban agrarian reform program which seemed to ban all but Cubans from shareholding in firms operating Cuban sugar plantations.

Cuban American Sugar dropped about three. American Sugar more than two and Vertientes Camaguey sugar over a point. United Fruit, a big landholder in Cuba, fell about a point.

Most electronic shares were higher although Zenith dropped about nine. Radio Corp. rose around two.

Chrysler was ahead around two and Ford more than a point. General Motors rose around a point. U.S. Steel and Jones and Laughlin held fractional advances.

DuPont, recovered about three. Goodyear and Lockheed rose around a point each.

U.S. government bonds were steady to fractionally higher.

Brown Endorses Nixon's Stand

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown, noting he and Vice President Richard M. Nixon seldom agree, today endorsed Nixon's recent stand against referendum on California's new Fair Employment Practices Act.

"Such an issue during a presidential election would be stupid," he told his press conference. He expressed confidence there won't be such a referendum.

The act forbids discrimination in employment on the basis of race, creed or ancestry and created a commission to enforce the law.

San Rafael Makes Parking Lot Payment

San Rafael paid a $93,080 bill last night to buy its fourth offstreet parking lot, at Third and Cijos streets.

The money will go to California Pacific Title Co. to be held in escrow until the title to the land is transferred to the city in 30 days.

City Manager Dan E. Andersen reported the parking district fund has only $63,000 at present. About $60,000 more is needed to buy the land and put in the parking stalls and meters. This will be advanced from the city's general fund, to be repaid from meter revenues.

City Engineer Dominic Selmi reported the lot, at the northeast corner of Cijos and Third, will accommodate 60 cars, including three small foreign cars. Entry to the lot will be from Cijos street, and exit on both Cijos and Third.

Engineer Selmi reported that total cost of the parking lot will come to about $120,000. This would include cost of land, demolition of structures, paving, lining and metering, and various fees. This means about $2,000 per stall, considerably cheaper than the cost per stall of the first three municipal parking lots.

The lot at Fifth and C holds 52 cars; Third and A, 71 cars; and Third and Loutens, 117 cars. With the new lot, San Rafael's municipal parking lots will hold a total of 300 cars.

Meeting Set On Use Of Boyle Park

A public meeting to air disputes over use of Mill Valley's Boyle Park by the Little League and some other organizations will be held next Monday at 8 p.m. in the Mill Valley City Hall.

The city's planning commission called the meeting after hearing arguments about use of the park during its regular session last night.

Chairman Charles P. Guichard said the meeting will seek to clear up "misunderstandings on the part of the Little Leaguers and citizens groups as to their responsibilities in use of the city park."

The planning commission also:

1. Recommended to the city council that $100 monthly be budgeted to retain a director for the teen-agers association.

2. Asked City Manager A. E. Almcrants to take steps to learn whether it is true that a redwood grove at Boyle Park was planted by returning World War I veterans, and, if so, to arrange a plaque.

The judge sentenced Gary Gene Buttram, 22, of 1533 Fourth street, San Rafael, to a $250 fine and six months probation. Buttram was arrested for drunken driving on Sir Francis Drake boulevard in San Anselmo last Thursday.

Drunk Driver Gets Jail, $250 Fine

Martin Edward Kuehl, 36, a Sonoma bricklayer who works at Hamilton Air Force Base, must spend five days in jail and pay a $250 fine for his second drunken driving offense.

Judge Albert F. Scheidecker in Marin Municipal Court sentenced Kuehl yesterday for driving while drunk along Entrada drive in Ignacio on April 10. Kuehl had a prior conviction in March, 1955.

The judge sentenced Gary Gene Buttram, 22, of 1533 Fourth street, San Rafael, to a $250 fine and six months probation. Buttram was arrested for drunken driving on Sir Francis Drake boulevard in San Anselmo last Thursday.

More Jobs Predicted For State

CORONADO (AP)—Expanding population will call for 250,000 more jobs a year in California between now and 1975, the general manager of the California Chamber of Commerce told bankers at their 68th annual state convention.

James Mussatti predicted the population would reach 26 million by 1975, an increase of 11 million, and that personal income would rise from the present 36 billion to 80 billion dollars a year.

The convention, which opened Sunday, will conclude tonight.

Mussatti told the opening-day session that traffic congestion, rising taxes, need for more water and air pollution will continue to be major problems.

Ben C. Corlett, senior vice president of the American Bankers Assn., and former California superintendent of banking, said that savings and loan associations and credit unions were moving more and more into banking fields and that some would like to establish checking accounts for customers.

He said the situation may need a "super-authority" to write rules and define boundaries of operations.

Many states and cities are considering — and some have approved — various safeguards. Among them are fire drills twice a month, new alarm and sprinkler systems, fire resistant building materials, enclosed stairwells, added fire escapes and new electric wiring.

Owen B. Kiernan, state commissioner of education, reports that 302 substandard school buildings are in use in Massachusetts.

He noted that more than a half billion dollars in school construction was completed in the state in the past decade. But Dr. Kiernan said that in times of financial stress some communities put off repairs and new structures.

Many States Act To Avert School Fires

By Associated Press
"Fire doesn't wait. It will continue to strike as swiftly, devastatingly and unexpectedly as ever."

Connecticut's state fire marshal, Carroll Shaw, sounded that warning.

He spoke out against any delays in eliminating fire perils in schools now because the old buildings will be replaced by fireproof structures in the future.

Captain Shaw reported progress is being made in his state. He suggested that the summer vacation will be a good time to bring schools up to safety standards.

AP SURVEY
He was one of the officials consulted in an Associated Press survey of state and city action in the wake of Chicago's disastrous Dec. 1 school fire.

That tragedy cost the lives to three nuns and 91 pupils in Our Lady of the Angels School.

But it also gave a hot spur to officials in other parts of the country.

The first and most far-reaching reaction was a flurry of school inspections. At least 50 schools closed.

COSTS ARE HIGH
Repairs and improvements have been ordered in hundreds of schools. The costs will run into millions.

For example: Pennsylvania's Department of Labor and Industry estimates corrective work in that state's public school buildings will cost eight million dollars.

The Los Angeles Board of Education plans to ask the city for more than six million dollars for fire prevention equipment.

In New York City 2,004 schools were inspected. Thirty-six were closed. Eight of them, all parochial, have not reopened.

ALARM SYSTEMS
Chicago's city council has approved ordinances that require automatic sprinklers and linking school alarm systems with the fire department's network.

Many states and cities are considering — and some have approved — various safeguards. Among them are fire drills twice a month, new alarm and sprinkler systems, fire resistant building materials, enclosed stairwells, added fire escapes and new electric wiring.

COUNTY RABIES CLINIC SHOTS TO COST MORE

It probably is going to cost more to have Fido vaccinated against rabies in future county vaccination clinics.

The Marin County Health Department said today that 50 cents a dog is being requested by veterinarians who perform the service at the clinics.

This would boost the clinic bill to $1.75 a dog, the health department told the county board of supervisors in a letter. About 2,000 dogs are vaccinated each year. The department said the cost of having a dog vaccinated privately is about $3.

The board requested that a resolution be drawn up authorizing the extra charge.

PG&E Value Assessed At $1 Billion

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The state Board of Equalization, defying protests that its utility assessments are too high, today boosted the assessed valuation of the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. to $1,045,918,000.

That means approximately three million dollars in additional taxes in counties where PG&E operates.

The assessment on operating property is $51,648,000 over the board's 1958 figure for California's largest public utility. It's the first time PG&E's valuation has been pegged at more than a billion dollars.

The five-man board set a precedent by conducting the PG&E hearing itself. In the past, it accepted staff recommendations without question. A legislative committee recently criticized the practice.

The board now will proceed with hearings on other utilities.

State Controller Alan Cranston, ex-officio board member, said the assessed value placed on the PG&E appeared to indicate that no great tax shift from utilities to private property is in prospect in 1959.

Marin and four communities in the county that have contracted for state administration of their sales taxes, will be "in the money" this week.

Under a newly adopted plan, the California State Board of Equalization announced in Sacramento they will receive a month earlier than they otherwise would have, tax collections made for them by the board.

Marin County will receive $8,032; Mill Valley $4,617; Fairfax $537; Corte Madera $487; Larkspur $292; and Belvedere $169.

Marin Man Moving Shoe Firm Into Rohnert Park

Kushins, Inc., Santa Rosa shoe manufacturing firm, has announced plans to move its plant to the Rohnert industrial park at Cotati.

Jerome M. Kushins of 51 Manderly road, San Rafael, is president and controlling stockholder of the firm, which produces Santa Rosa brand work shoes with a gross annual sale of about a million and a half dollars.

Kushins, Inc., has 150 employees, an annual payroll of about $750,000 and a dealer organization of 1,800 outlets. Its new plan at Cotati will be located on six acres in Rohnert Park.

The first building of the new plant is expected to be in operation by the summer of 1960, Kushins said today.

3 Marin Firms File Articles Of Incorporation

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan announced three Marin county firms have filed articles of incorporation with his office.

Racoon Straits Maritime Center, Inc., a marine supply and outfitting firm, has filed articles to be capitalized at $50,000 in $100 par shares. The firm listed its directors as Kirby Atterbury, Tiburon; Frederick Duval and C. Fred Holmes, San Rafael.

Paragon Timber Co., a real estate firm has filed articles to be capitalized at $75,000 in $10 par shares. Directors were listed as Howard K. Morehouse, 127 Ridgewood drive; Anna F. and David B. Fyfe, 8 Marina court, San Rafael.

Beryessa Aggregates, Inc., an operation of gravel quarries firm, has filed articles to be capitalized at $500,000 in $100 par shares. Directors were listed as Frank J. Schaaf, 212 Sycamore avenue, Mill Valley; Charles O. Prince, 59 Geneva way, San Rafael; Thomas E. Schaaf, 102 Van Tassel court, San Anselmo.

Big Liner Docks Under Own Power

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The luxury liner Matsonia docked under its own power today as a San Francisco Bay tugboat tieup continued.

Federal Conciliator George Hillenbrand said the striking Inland Boatmen's Union and employers agreed to resume negotiations today.

Railroads and trucking firms were taking over the hauling jobs of strikebound grain and oil barges.

ABC To Televis Winter Olympics

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Broadcasting Co. said today it has acquired the exclusive television rights for the 1960 Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley.

ABC said it will telecast "live" and with tape each of the games, Feb. 18-28.

The games include skating, skiing and hockey.

Corte Madera Turns Down Apt. Zoning

By 4-0 vote, the Corte Madera Town Council last night denied a request for apartment rezoning of four lots in Sunnyside Terrace.

The decision, made after a 45-minute public hearing, overrode the town planning commission's unanimous recommendation for approval. Councilman Albert E. Kogler was absent.

Located on the north side of Redwood avenue near the town park, the four lots are zoned for duplexes, with one family permitted for every 4,000 square feet of land. Under apartment zoning, the permissible density is one family per 2,000 square feet.

ASKED CHANGE Developers Carl S. Vella and Cleland O. Whitton sought the change to permit construction of a $225,000 apartment project of 18 units in four buildings.

Two petitions, one signed by 37 property owners favoring the rezoning and the other by 19 opponents, were presented to the council.

Ray E. Johnson of 10 Redwood avenue, circulator of the favorable petition, said all but two of the signers live within 500 feet of the four lots.

The document claimed the apartment project would result in covering an open drainage ditch and "do away with an eyesore and a mosquito and rat breeding area."

CITES ENCROACHMENT Aubrey C. Mendle of 7 Hickory avenue circulated the opposition petition. It said the rezoning would "open the door to continuing encroachment of high density multiple dwellings into lower density areas."

The council painstakingly applied rezoning criteria listed in the town zoning ordinance before declaring the requested change unwarranted. Denial was on motion by Councilman William R. Hansen.

Councilman Edward W. Colthurst disagreed with his fellow members on several key points, but voted with them "because if we did rezone that property, I'm afraid it would start a piecemeal nibbling right up the hill."

Paper Strike Talks Under Way

SAN JOSE (P)—Three federal mediators have arrived and begun efforts to end a three-month-old newspaper strike.

Mediators Wayne Kenaston, Ralph Williams and Charles Rehms scheduled sessions today with the San Jose Mercury and News and the American Newspaper Guild.

The federal officials arrived yesterday in time to participate in talks between management and the Stereotypers Union.

The paper was struck Feb. 14 by the stereotypers and the Pressmen's Union, which later reached an agreement. The guild struck May 1.

Corte Madera Votes To Ask New Census

The Corte Madera Town Council last night voted to ask a new state Department of Finance estimate of the town's population, in the hope of acquiring additional state revenues.

Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow said the town could receive an additional $3,000 to $3,500 from the state in motor vehicle license fee apportionments if the population has risen 5 per cent since the last census.

The new census estimate will cost about $160. Brandow expressed hope the Department of Finance will finish the survey before June 10, when the next apportionment of vehicle taxes will be made.

The latest Corte Madera census, taken by the federal government in October, 1957, placed the town's population at 4,164.

In other matters last night, the Corte Madera council:

1. Postponed to its June 1 meeting further discussion of 1959-60 salaries for town employees.

2. Appointed Walter H. Ehlers of 40 Farnal Vista drive to the town planning commission. He succeeds Wilbur L. Reed, whose term expired May 1.

3. Referred to the Corte Madera Shopping Center Merchants Council, for an expression of opinion, a planning commission recommendation for a directional sign at Tamalpais drive and Madera boulevard. It would direct motorists to the shopping center, the central business district and the Highway 101 frontage road.

4. Continued to June 1 at 7:30 p.m. a public hearing on Tide-water Oil Co.'s request for rezoning to permit a service station at Fifer avenue and Highway 101.

5. Endorsed state legislation making local zoning regulations applicable to school districts and opposed a bill to repeal a 1949 act on annexation of uninhabited territory.

CONVICT HAS ONE MORE FOR THE ROAD

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (P)—A convicted murderer was recaptured in a Nashville tavern yesterday less than six hours after he escaped from the penitentiary.

Sipping a beer as officers walked up, Richard Reilly told Inspector Carney Patterson:

"Sure would like another. There's a long dry spell ahead."

"Why not?" said Patterson. Reilly downed a second beer. "It's on the house," the bartender said.

3 Cars Pile Up In Corte Madera

A retired Army officer complained of neck pains yesterday after his westbound car and two others were involved in a rear-end collision on Tamalpais drive in Corte Madera.

The injury was suffered by Lt. Col. Clarence C. Parks, 53, of 121 Kent avenue, Kentfield, now a civil service employee at the San Francisco Presidio. He was not hospitalized.

Police Chief Frank L. Nelson said the other cars were driven by George Leslie Hart, 51, of 46 Mohawk avenue, Corte Madera, also employed at the Presidio, and John Joseph Rotar, 36, a salesman of 54 Yale avenue, Larkspur. The late afternoon accident happened between Madera boulevard and Lakeside drive. There were no citations.

Woman Missing In Corte Madera

Marin County authorities today were seeking a 40-year-old Corte Madera woman reported missing for two days by her husband.

William E. Tretten of 3 Taylor lane told Corte Madera police his wife, Jean Roberta, was not at home when he returned at 7:30 p.m. Sunday. Tretten is a cab driver in San Francisco.

An all-points bulletin on the missing woman describes her as being 5 feet 5 inches tall and weighing 140 pounds. She has gray-green eyes and red hair. When last seen, she was wearing a yellow blouse, blue Capri pants and brown and white saddle shoes.

An analysis of daily newspaper reading shows there's no "off season" for newspapers' popularity. More than 61 million copies are purchased every day in the United States and Canada—summer, winter, autumn and spring.

Marin City School Plans Discussed

Sausalito School District trustees, working toward a proposed new school structure when Marin City is rebuilt, held informal discussions with some 10 architects last night but reached no decision.

Board chairman Minnie Sievers said another special meeting will be held tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the district offices for continued discussion of the subject.

Actress Sets Date HOLLYWOOD (P)—Actress Margaret O'Brien has set Aug. 8 for her wedding to art student Robert Allen.

The couple announced yesterday that the ceremony will be held in the Church of the Good Shepherd in Beverly Hills with Anna Maria Alberghetti, the singer-actress as one of the bridesmaids.

They will honeymoon in Hawaii.

Marin City Educator Planning To Retire

Mrs. Estelle C. Close, who has been identified with the Marin City School almost since its creation at the start of World War II, will retire at the end of the current school year.

After extensive teaching experience, including ownership and operation of a private commercial college in Santa Rosa, Mrs. Close became vice principal at the Marin City School in 1944. In 1950, she served as "roving" principal in the Sausalito School District, covering all schools. And in 1952 she was designated principal at Marin City.

MENDOCINO-BORN

Mrs. Close was born Estelle Cook in the now-abandoned hamlet of Christine near the lumber town of Philo in Mendocino County. Her father was a Methodist minister and her mother a practicing physician. She was the youngest of eight children on a 985-acre ranch which is still owned by the family. Two brothers and a sister all live in California.

After taking her teaching credentials at Dr. Burke's Normal School in San Francisco in 1913, she started teaching in Bell Valley, Mendocino County. In 1918 she became principal of Rincon School in Santa Rosa.

The following year, she married Thomas Lee Thornbury, also a teacher. He was killed in an aircraft accident in Texas shortly afterward while in training for the Army Air Service of World War I.

MARRIES AGAIN

Mrs. Close later married Ernest Close but continued her school work. In 1934, she started the Luther Burbank College of Commerce in the former Luther Burbank home in Santa Rosa. She sold the school in 1942.

After two years in state service, she moved to Marin County and joined the Sausalito School District.

Mrs. Close has been active in the American Legion Auxiliary and Order of Eastern Star, and is past president of the Santa Rosa Business and Professional Women's Club.

For the past three years, she has lived alone on the Belvedere lagoon with her three pets, Sandy (a collie), Sally Ann (a cat from Marin City School) and Jonnie (a canary).

Mrs. Close plans to become affiliated with the Lynn Barr Real Estate office when she leaves the school. Later, she hopes to become an independent realty broker.

12 Teachers Join Staff At Redwood

Addition of 12 teachers will be made next semester to the Redwood High School faculty; four of them are to be replacements. With the expectation of an increase of 200 students, the new teachers will be badly needed, the administration declared.

Driver training will be offered next year and taught by Donald Boucher from Fairmont High School. Boucher will also help coach the football and basketball teams.

Miss Marian du Jardin will teach arts and crafts. She was formerly on the staff of Principal Donald Kreps in Gilroy.

Paul Bosque, who now teaches an eighth grade class in Kentfield, will teach basic math and arithmetic, as well as help coach the football and basketball teams.

A new face in the history department will be Miss Patricia Pendergast who will be teaching U. S. history and world history. Miss Pendergast, from Manhattan Beach, Los Angeles, also will take over the job of yearbook adviser.

With 22 years of past experience, Miss Sue Bayner will be teaching French. She will replace Mrs. Barbara Meislin, who will be taking a leave of absence.

Miss Elaine Young will assume the job of teaching sophomore English, and Harry Davis, who was a student teacher under Miss Marys White-man at Drake, will teach freshman English.

James Buckley will teach metal shop and also coach the football team.

A newcomer to the teaching profession will be Miss Rita Morrison, who will instruct business education. She will take over John Cook's beginning shorthand class, leaving Cook to teach the advanced group.

Joseph Sullivan will teach Spanish; Fred Broemmer, advanced math and algebra; and Eldon Bennett, algebra and basic math.

From Sir Francis Drake High School comes Miss Jean Burns to teach girls physical education and to become a member of the counseling staff. Another addition to the counseling staff will be psychology and history teacher, Robert Edman.

Mrs. Barbara Meislin will be taking a leave of absence, Miss Una Meadowcroft will be married and plans to move, Edward Baker will secure a job closer to his home, and Mrs. Matilde Di Subero will retire from teaching, they have announced.

Drake Seniors Give 'Basket Ball' Friday

Students at Sir Francis Drake High School are anxiously awaiting the "Basket Ball" and game to be held at the Drake gym Friday from 8 p.m. until midnight.

The affair, sponsored by the senior class to raise money for their Senior Ball, will begin with a basketball game between girls and boys of the class. After the game the dance will be held. Teenagers from other schools are cordially invited.

GIRL WINS $250 SCHOLARSHIP

Donna Noonan, a senior at Novato High School, has just been awarded a $250 medical scholarship offered by the Women's Auxiliary to the Marin Medical Society.

Donna will attend Saint Joseph's College of Nursing in San Francisco beginning this fall semester. She will live at the college, and work for her bachelor of science degree. She is interested in public health nursing.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Noonan of 21 Boulevard Terrace, Novato.

Tam Seniors To Produce 4 One-Acts

"The Telephone," a one act opera dialogue, will be a singing contribution to Tam's four short plays to be presented as the senior play this year on May 28 and 29.

Starring in "The Telephone," will be Claudia Colburn, senior, and Joe Reade, junior. They have both had lead roles in recent musical productions at Tam. Robert Greenwood music instructor, will direct the half-hour long, humorous opera. Nancy Piver, accompanist, will assist a small chamber orchestra in accompanying the singing.

Peter Klain, dramatics instructor, decided to assign a student to direct each of the three plays. The seniors students did their own casting for the plays which are entitled, "The Monkey's Paw," "Nobody Sleeps," and "So Wonderful In White."

"The Monkey's Paw," a gripping fantasy, will be directed by senior Tom Hanley.

Senior Sharon Rosell, who was stage manager for Tam's recent musical "Paint Your Wagon," will direct "So Wonderful In White."

Jody Johnson will direct the third play entitled, "Nobody Sleeps."

Sophomore Dance At Novato Delayed Week

The "Bohemian Ball," sponsored by the sophomore class of Novato High School, was rescheduled next Friday night to avoid conflict with the night baseball game at Healdsburg last Friday.

Girls may wear Jamaicas or Capris, however NO skirts or dresses will be allowed. The boys may wear Bermudas or slacks, but NO T-shirts or jeans.

Concert At Tam High Set Friday

Outstanding feature of Friday's annual Spring Concert at Tamalpais High School will be "Halleluyah," sub title "Shiro Chadosho," a Sabbath morning service by Weiner. Nancy Piver will play accompaniment. This piece will be sung in Hebrew.

The Tamalpais orchestra, choir, and girls' glee club, under the direction of Mrs. Mabel Pittenger, Robert Greenwood and John Iric will present the annual concert in Ruby Scott Auditorium at 8 p.m.

As a preview to the senior play next week (May 28-29) Claudia Colburn and Joe Reade will sing a duet from "The Telephone," one of the four short plays to be presented.

"Jungle Drums," a selection similar to "Quiet Village," will be accompanied by Marc Hanchett doing bird calls, Bob Burgan playing the bongos, Sita Dimitroff on the maracas, Dave Arrow on the claves, and Barbara Chesnut plays the guiro.

The Girls' Glee will sing under the direction of John Iric, visiting teacher.

Carnival To Raise Activities Funds

A gay atmosphere will prevail at Novato High School May 29 at an all-school carnival open to the public.

All clubs, organizations and classes may operate booths in order to raise money. One quarter of the profit goes to student body funds. The rest is retained by the sponsoring group. The festivity will be held on the tennis courts at NHS from 3 to 8 p.m.

10 Tam Students Win Poster Honors

Ten Drake High School art students received awards for their "Be Kind To Animals" posters.

First prize honors were awarded to Roxie Collins, sophomore. Second and third places went to Lois Weiland and Sue Brown, respectively. Kathleen Smith, Kitchee Greiner and Nancy Bur received special awards for their efforts.

Those selected to go on to further competition without receiving awards were Rich Simmons, Marylee Harrington, Debby Brown and Betty Reck.

Redwood High Girl To Spend Summer With German Family

Sandy Boyer, Redwood High School's American Field Service representative, will spend her summer in Germany. She does not yet know in what part of Germany she will live, but she is scheduled to depart during the last week of school.

Since the news of her summer trip arrived, Sandy has been reviewing German grammar. Unfortunately she is a French and Latin student; however, now she is a veteran of half a dozen German lessons. She has also undergone a barrage of medical shots in preparation for her European visit.

After she arrives in New York, Sandy will sail for Europe with other A. F. S. summer exchange students. Robert Mautner, her French instructor and AFS advisor, will accompany her group as a chaperone. When she arrives in Germany, Sandy will spend the summer months with a family there.

John C. Chambers is the other student from Redwood to go abroad under the AFS program. John will go to Europe this fall for a school term, but he will not know to what country until he is placed with a European family.

Next year, an Austrian student will be attending Redwood, as Martina Jimenez from Chile has done this year. He will make his home with Mrs. Emma Jean Wulzen and her family in Ross.

The Junior Class and Phi Lambda Sigma, the foreign language honor society, are giving financial assistance to Redwood's two exchange students and next year's visitor from Austria. The Larkspur Lions Club is also assisting in raising funds for the program.

COED STYLE SHOW TONIGHT

Tonight in the San Rafael High School cafeteria, the home economics department will present a fashion show for the Parent-Teachers Association.

Fashions will be modeled by high school girls, who made their own clothes for the occasion. Forty-eight girls will model, including Judy Lawrence, modeling a formal of her own design.

Carol DuVall will be the narrator. The show will be held at 8 p. m. in the cafeteria. The foods department will serve refreshments after the show.

235 Apply For Jobs

Approximately 235 San Rafael High School students filed applications at the school for summer or full-time employment, according to Jules Chourre, San Rafael high school counselor.

The applications also were filed in the State Department of Employment, so that businessmen and other prospective employers can contact the students.

Chourre said a program will begin shortly to help college bound students find summer employment.

Pickle Sale To Buy Pins For News Staff

On May 27 the Red 'n' White San Rafael High School newspaper, will stage a pickle sale, intended to raise money for pins for staff members.

The pickles will be sold by members of the staff in front of the cafeteria at noon time.

Career Conference In Novato Thursday

A "career conference" to acquaint Novato High School juniors and seniors with specific career opportunities will be held Thursday from 1 to 3 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

The program will open with a panel presentation by representatives from eight selected career fields: health, legal, teaching, engineering, agriculture, transportation, business and trades, according to Mrs. Ruth Mayo, faculty sponsor.

Following the panel presentation, students will participate in section meetings with the representatives in order to ask questions and gather more information about particular fields.

Marin High Holds Two Elections

Students at Marin Catholic High School voted today for officers of the Girls Sodality, religious honor organization. Results were to be tallied later this afternoon.

Arlene Modoni, Sherry Jervis and Elaine Bernasconi were candidates for president.

Vice presidential aspirants were Anne Cunningham, Mary Annie Kiesmat and Genie Gable.

Kathy Yates and Kathy Epperson were running for treasurer, and Marcia Jervis was unopposed for secretary. Last week song leaders and yell leaders were elected for next year.

Joe Behm, Janice Jansone, Joan Moran and Mike Anderson were elected yell leaders.

Dorothy Hogan, Nancy Niederholzer, Karen Wendell, Kathy Young, Barbara Root and Nancy Friel were named song leaders.

PSYCHIATRIST HAS AN IDEA FOR PARENTS

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—A child psychiatrist told a pediatric society meeting yesterday that "we need to turn back the rearing of children to parents instead of giving them so much 'expert' advice."

Dr. Paul Benton, of Tulsa, Okla. said "you can't rear children by a book of rules. Every child is an individual."

Scholarship Charter Award Thursday

Novato High School will receive charter membership in the California Scholarship Federation and 38 members will get lifetime membership certificates at a special program Thursday at 3:15 p.m. in the NHS cafeteria.

According to Mrs. Joyce Palmer, advisor, the installation ceremony will host Mrs. Mable Beckwith, CSP advisor for San Rafael High School, as installing officer.

Valedictorian? Nothing To It At Dayton High

DAYTON, Nev. (UPI)—If you are valedictorian at Dayton High School, you're still only in the top 50 per cent of the class.

Only two senior students will graduate from the high school May 22.

The institution will be shut down next year and the students transferred to Carson City High School.

Irish Vice Consul Praises San Rafael High Production

The Irish vice consul in San Francisco, visiting in the United States only a month, went backstage after a production in San Rafael High School auditorium, and complimented the cast and staff on a "superb job."

The production was "Playboy of the Western World," produced by the San Rafael High School theater arts department.

Michael Drury, the Irish vice consul, was in the audience to see the play about a fugitive in a small Irish town. Afterwards, he stood with his foot on a barrel backstage and said the show was better than some adult productions he had seen in this country.

"The actors did a superb job with an extremely difficult play," Drury declared. He called the play "one of the finest to come out of the Irish Renaissance," and said the sets were completely authentic and the accents "well done, though they sounded a bit northern."

Director Dennis Dunn said the play was well received and "we've had many words of praise and requests to do it again."

Marin Girl Wins Summer Studies

Kathy Marcone, a junior at Marin Catholic High School, will attend a special class in mathematics, biological sciences or physical sciences this summer at the College of the Holy Names.

She won the honor solely on the basis of her grades over the past three years. Her entire tuition, room and board will be covered by the scholarship to the summer course.

Other Countries' Gifts Displayed In Novato

Exchange gifts from seven countries that received Junior Red Cross packages from the United States were on display last week in the art department at Novato High School.

The gifts were made by the students in their countries to show the type of industry, customs, and arts not familiar to U.S. students.

Novato Girls Picnic At Tomales Saturday

A potluck picnic at Tomales Beach State Park Saturday will be the final outing for the Novato High School Girls' Athletic Association.

The school bus will leave at 9:30 a.m. and return around 5 p.m. Miss Jan Hunninghaus, GAA advisor, will be the chaperon.

Kathy Bodeen Wins Marin Speech Contest

Kathy Bodeen won the sophomore declamation contest yesterday at Marin Catholic High School. Orating contestants gave humorous presentations.

Second place went to Louise Miranda; third to David Fitzharris. All three have been active in the speech class this year.

Bill Signed Raising Rail Job Benefits

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower signed a bill today to increase retirement and unemployment benefits to the nation's railroad workers. The President made no comment in taking the action.

The bill, which came out of Congress May 5, was opposed by railroad management as unjust and out of line with Social Security benefits paid in other lines of work.

It raised the retirement benefits of approximately 840,000 railroad employees by 10 per cent and increases unemployment benefits by 20 per cent, effective June 1.

Both the railroads and the workers will have to pay higher payroll taxes to cover the increases.

Checks of about 364,000 already retired workers will be raised from $118 to $130 a month.

Payments to 133,000 wives or husbands of deceased workers will be raised from $52 to $57 a month.

Runaway Ignacio Boys Sought

Police are looking for two 15-year-old boys from Ignacio, who decided to run away from home during the weekend and make a living on their own.

R. Arnold Swett, 15, of 458 Calle Arboleda, left a note saying he left partly because his father would not buy him a car.

Bruce Michael Whittaker, 15, of 580 Calle Arboleda indicated that a breakup with his girl friend was a partial reason.

On Saturday night, young Swett went to the Whittaker home to spend the night with Bruce. The next morning, both boys were gone. They had about $10 in cash between them.

Swett is 5 feet 7 inches, 150 pounds, and has curly blond hair. Whittaker is 5 feet 11 inches, 145 pounds, and has blond hair.

Lynwood Park Unit Lays Picnic Plans

Novato's Lynwood Park Improvement Assn. will hold its annual picnic June 28 at the Novato Lions Club picnic grounds near Stafford Lake, members decided at a meeting at Lynwood School last night.

Mrs. Henry Kaehler was appointed chairman.

The association decided to hold no membership meetings during June, July and August. Directors will continue to meet the first Thursday of each month.

Board Refuses Sewer Hookup

Directors of the Richardson Bay Sanitary District declined last night to issue a temporary permit for a new home in the Harbor Point Estates project to hook up to existing sewer facilities.

Developer, county and sanitary district are in a dispute over who pays for repairing sewer mains installed by the developer but later damaged by additional work.

The permit request was referred to the district's legal staff to determine whether granting it would jeopardize the district's position.

The board started proceedings to annex several small areas.

An adjourned meeting was set for June 1 at 8 p.m. at the Trestle Glen treatment plant.

Latter-Day Saints Church Leader Dies

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Stephen L. Richards, 79, of the first presidency of the Latter-day Saints (Mormon) Church, died today.

The death came from a heart ailment. He was stricken this morning and died moments after arrival at the Latter-day Saints Hospital at 7:55 a.m. Richards had been a member of the church's Council of Twelve Apostles (ruling and executive body) since 1917.

BIG FOUR

cal articles in the Soviet draft would probably lead to the banning of all political parties now operating in West Germany and the reinstatement of the outlawed Communist party.

A deadlock persisted over Berlin.

The United States warned Russia that President Eisenhower will refuse to attend a summit conference if Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev sets some new deadline for a Communist squeeze play on West Berlin.

Informants said the American warning was prompted by a suspicion that Khrushchev would try such a move if the foreign ministers' conference turns out to be what he considers a failure.

U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter told Gromyko in plain words at a dinner party a few nights ago what the U.S. reaction would be.

Khrushchev originally set a May 27 deadline for the Western Allies to end their occupation of West Berlin and said that on that date he would give the East German Communists control of the Allied supply routes to West Berlin.

He later postponed the deadline indefinitely. Should he renege it and hand over traffic control to the East Germans, this would raise the danger of a Berlin blockade.

Gromyko assured Herter that the Soviet Union had no ulterior motives in proposing a peace settlement now with divided Germany.

Herter reminded Gromyko of the May 27 deadline and said that the existence of any deadline made it difficult to believe that the Soviets did not have hidden purposes.

Gromyko said he was sorry that Herter had mentioned the date of May 27. He himself had not planned to bring it up in Geneva except possibly at the end of the conference. To Herter, that sounded as if it might be a veiled hint of a new threat.

Thereupon Herter told Gromyko that anyone who thought the President of the United States would go to a summit conference under duress or threat of a cut-off date had better forget it.

The President's attendance under such circumstances would be impossible, Herter emphasized.

Hoffa Hurls Nationwide Strike Threat

BROWNVILLE, Tex. (AP) — James Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, today threatened a nationwide strike as an answer to proposed restrictive labor laws.

Hoffa, speaker at a convention of the South Atlantic and Gulf Coast District of the International Longshoremen Union, said there is a movement for an anti-trust law against unions.

He said such a law would require "the longshoremen to take in part of the teamsters, the teamsters to take in some of the steelworkers, and the steelworkers to take in some of the auto workers."

"Such a situation would create conflict of wages and working conditions," he said.

"The only answer is that if such a law passes, we should have all our contracts end on a given date."

"They talk about a secondary boycott; we can call a primary strike all across the nation that will straighten out the employers for once and for all."

Hoffa was greeted by a tremendous round of applause after the statement.

Home Burglarized In Corte Madera

A Corte Madera couple returned from a weekend trip yesterday to find their home had been broken into by a thief who took dresses and ammunition.

The burglary was reported to police by Mr. and Mrs. John Joseph O'Connor of 29 Paloma drive.

Police Chief Frank L. Nelson said the intruder apparently entered through an unlocked garage door. Missing from closets were 12 dresses, a box of .22 caliber cartridges, a half-filled box of .38 caliber cartridges and an Army blanket.

Santa Rosa Crash Kills Two Women

SANTA ROSA (AP) — A car plunged into a creek today, killing two women and injuring two.

The victims were identified tentatively as Mrs. Clyde Wheelock and Mrs. Hazel Phillips, both of Santa Rosa.

The injured were Mrs. Ted Nelson, 64, and Mrs. Harry Stearns, 60, both of Santa Rosa.

Coroner Harry Johansen said the car shot off a sharp curve, through a bridge railing and into the creek on the Calistoga road 4½ miles northeast of Santa Rosa.

Kentfield Classrooms Fill Up Again As Flu Tapers Off

The seventh and eighth grade classrooms at A. E. Kent School in Kentfield, depopulated by a flu-type illness during the past two weeks, began to fill up today.

Only 18 of the 96 eighth graders and eight of the 120 seventh graders were absent this morning.

At the height of the siege half of the eighth graders and one-third of the seventh graders were absent, reported Robert A. Rowe, vice principal.

Symptoms of the three-to-five day disease are a temperature, headache and a bit of nausea. Nearby Ross Grammar School was minus half an eighth grade class and four teachers during the last week, reported Supt. Stephen L. Parodi.

A busy round of eighth grade graduation parties with a sprinkling of guests who say "Sure, Mom, I feel okay" when they don't probably served to spread the infection.

San Rafael schools did not notice any increase in absenteeism last week, the superintendent's office reported. Thirteen of the 41 measles cases reported last week to the Marin County Health Department were in San Rafael. Six were in Larkspur.

Reid Denies Political Aims

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ogden R. Reid today branded as "completely unfounded" reports that he is seeking the job of ambassador to Israel as a springboard to run for mayor of New York.

Reid told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee considering his appointment that he has "no political ambition whatsoever" and has "no thought other than to serve as long as I can be useful" in the diplomatic post.

The youthful scion of a New York publishing family said "I have never considered trying to run for public office."

Study Of Hearst Park Urged

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Assemblyman Lester A. McMillan (D-Los Angeles) today called for a new look at state operation of the Hearst Castle at San Simeon.

He proposed an interim committee study management of the state park, treatment of visitors and cost of operation.

"We've had it as a state park for a year," McMillan said. "I just want to look at it and see whether it's an asset or a liability. I want to make sure we didn't get a white elephant."

Sartariano Rites Scheduled Thursday

A Requiem High Mass for Joseph M. Cartariano, 45, of Mill Valley will be celebrated at the Church of the Immaculate Conception in San Francisco at 9:30 a.m. Thursday. Interment will follow in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma.

Sartariano, construction superintendent for F. K. Pinney, Inc. of San Francisco, died at his Enchanted Knolls home Sunday while talking with a friend. His death was apparently caused by a heart attack.

The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the chapel of H. F. Suhr Co., San Francisco.

Maria Leonardi Dies Of Cancer

Mrs. Maria Leonardi of 341 Bayview street, San Rafael, died of cancer today in a local hospital after three years illness.

Born in Italy 75 years ago, Mrs. Leonardi came to Marin County in 1906 to join her husband, Frank.

She was a member of the Italian Catholic Federation.

She is survived by her husband, who is a gardener; four daughters and a son, Mrs. Clementina Clayton and Mrs. Pearl Testa of San Rafael, and Mrs. Mary Ridgway, Mrs. Helen Hurt and John Leonardi of San Anselmo; a sister and brother, Mrs. Clementina Leonardi of Kentfield and John Dallara of San Rafael; 11 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

A Requiem Mass will be offered at St. Raphael's Church at 9:30 a.m. Thursday. Burial will be in Mt. Olivet Cemetery. The Rosary will be recited at Keaton's Mortuary at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Friends may make memorial gifts to the Marin County branch of the American Cancer Society.

Reservoir Rec Bill Hearing This Week

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Arguments for and against enactment of a bill designed to open more public and private reservoirs to fishing and recreational uses will be heard at a public hearing in the office of Gov. Edmund G. Brown on Thursday.

The bill in question is AB-286 by Assemblyman S. C. Masterson (D-El Sobrante) which has passed both houses of the legislature and now awaits only the signature of Brown to become law.

The bill provides water agencies must open reservoirs for fishing and public use if the Department of Public Health issues regulations for their operation. It would not include any reservoir from which water is taken for domestic use without first being purified.

The heart of the bill, Masterson said, is a requirement that, if the water agency refuses to open the reservoir, it must submit the matter to a vote of the people at the next election. If the majority of voters favor opening, the reservoir must be opened.

"In many ways, this is a better bill than I had last year," Masterson said.

The assemblyman has carried bills on the same subject in 1953-55-57. In 1957 the bill passed both houses but was vetoed by Gov. Goodwin J. Knight.

The principal opponent of Masterson's bill has been the Metropolitan Water District in southern California. The governor's office said the MWD had requested the pre-signing hearing.

During hearings on the bill, the MWD had charged it would put the district to expense to purify water leaving Lake Mathews, in southern California, if the bill took effect. Masterson said the lake would be exempted from the act if the water was not purified.

FIRST ROUND OF GOLF, HE HITS JACKPOT

San Rafael Mayor John McInnis hit the jackpot on his first time out on a golf course last Saturday.

McInnis, playing in the Marin Masonic Lodge golf tournament, dropped his tee shot on the 168-yard seventh hole of the Sonoma Country Club. Others in his foursome were Glenn Sleezer, Tom King and Staley Brown. There were four other witnesses.

The Mayor had had only six lessons prior to his first venture on a regulation golf course.

HEAVYWEIGHT SCRAP

'Johnson Vs. Dempsey' In S. F. Wednesday?

Picture Jack Johnson and Jack Dempsey in the ring Wednesday night at the Cow Palace and, undoubtedly, one of the great ring battles in history would be the result.

These are the two all-time heavyweight champions that Wednesday's principals, Eddie Machen and Rueben Vargas, will be trying to emulate in their nationally televised 10-round.

Asked to rate their all-time heavies, Machen selected Johnson—Vargas picked Dempsey.

"I feel that I resemble Johnson, from what I've heard and read about him," believes Machen. "I would rather fight him than any other man."

"Dempsey is my idol," quick-sent parimutual play tumbling despite the addition of a ninth race to the daily programs at all tracks this year.

ly answers the Richmond heavy, who many times is called the "Mexican Jack Dempsey" by co-manager Bert Brodese. "Bert has often said I have a style like his."

Brodese, always ready to chime in with a word, points out, "It's only natural for Rueben to pick fighters like Dempsey, Rocky Marciano and Luis Firpo. He's like they were — tough and rugged."

"Reuben couldn't dream of being a boxer—say like Floyd Paterson. He's a rough kid in the ring with lots of desire. Mark my word, Rueben will dump Machen inside of five rounds. He's never let me down yet."

Both scrappers wound up sparring drills Sunday and will engage in only light work until fight time Wednesday, 7 p.m. The nationally televised fight will be blacked out in Northern California.

HANLEY'S REPORT

Interview With Mr. Willie Mays

By JACK HANLEY

Listen for a few minutes to Willie Mays talking. It may give you a better insight into the Giants' $80,000 center fielder who once was a "Say Hey" kid.

Mays still has clowning and kidding sessions around the practice batting cage or in the dressing room. He still has the same exuberant enthusiasm and love for the game he had when he first came to the Giants in 1951.

But now he is a sort of elder statesman to all of the National League's Negro ball players. He is aware of this, but doesn't talk about it. His exemplary conduct on and off the field is a perfect complement to his new role as an elder statesman at the age of 28.

Mays closely studies all N.L. players because, as he says, "I must know how to play them," but he pays particular attention to the progress of colored players and can cite you their records as of yesterday's games.

Here is the verbatim Q. & A. of an interview in the Giants' dressing room with Mays before the Braves-Giants three-game series opened yesterday.

Q. Do you think baseball will ever produce another .400 hitter?

A. I wouldn't care to comment on that because I don't think about hitting .400. I just try to do the best I can to win every game I play in.

Q. NOT YOU specifically, Willie, but baseball generally. There have been only eight .400 hitters in the entire history of the National League. Now, Hank Aaron is here with the Braves for the current series and he has a pretty good start although he has a long way to go in maintaining his .400 plus mark for the whole season. What about Aaron as a possible candidate?

A. I just haven't been around long enough to know. You'd have to ask someone like Ted Williams or Stan Musial. I've been told that the year (it was 1930) Bill Terry did it, he didn't have one slump.

Q. WATCHING you play, Willie, it seems you never take your eye off the ball at any time whether it is hit to you in center, foul, right or left or to the infield. Did Jackie Robinson tell you never to take your eye off the ball?

A. Nobody told me that. I learned that by myself in studying my job. Baseball is my job and I study it. To steal a base you should keep your eye on the ball, not the pitcher. Robinson did mention that to me. But to do a job right you have to study it and I owe it to the man upstairs in the front office (Horace Stoneham) to give him and the team my best. He's a mighty fine man. And he knows baseball.

Q. That sounds like a plug for the boss, Willie.

A. Don't take my word for it. Ask any ball player who has been with this club and others, they've been with. They're happy with this outfit.

Q. It is important being happy in your job whether it's baseball or anything else, feeling that you are making a positive contribution instead of being on the payroll and collecting a check. Isn't it?

A. Now, don't get me wrong. I like my job and baseball is my business. But I also like that paycheck.

That was the end of the Q. & A. because Manager Bill Rigney's chief coach Salty Parker shouted:

"All right, men, batting practice in five minutes."

Mays and the rest of the

Junior Net Program Set In Sausalito

Sausalito's city-sponsored summer tennis program will get under way Saturday, June 6 at 10 a.m. at the Richardson Bay School courts, according to Program Director John Minton.

All Sausalito children between the aged of 9 and 18 are invited to sign up. Registration fee will be $1.

This year's program will span 11 weeks—through Aug. 22—with instruction to be given on Saturday mornings. Minton said separate instruction would be provided for beginners, for intermediate players, and for children with advanced talent and experience. Assisting him in the teaching program will be Mrs. Wyman Hicks, who participated in last year's inaugural series.

TWO TOURNEYS

Two tournaments are planned: (1) a beginners' tourney in July and (2) the second annual City Junior Tournament, slated for Aug. 25-26.

Children must bring their own racquets. The city will provide the balls.

Minton, a member of the Sausalito Recreation Commission, was a varsity netter at Indiana University. This marks the second straight year the commission has made the program available.

Giants finished their luncheon sandwiches and streamed through the tunnel to the field where Aaron and the rest of the Braves were winding up their time allotment in the batting cage.

Brown's Water Bond Plan Approved By Senate Unit

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown has scored an initial victory on his proposal for a one and three-quarter-billion-dollar bond issue to finance a statewide water system.

The Senate Water Resources Committee approved the bill shortly before last midnight after a four-hour debate over its language and a series of amendments.

Forgery Suspect Gets Plea Delay

Mrs. Inger Helene Kelly, 32, attractive Terra Linda mother accused of forging prescriptions to get a constant supply of barbituates, won a two-week continuance yesterday before she enters her plea.

Judge Albert F. Scheidecker in Marin Municipal Court set 1:30 p.m. June 1 as time for her plea to the forgery charge. She is free on $1,500 bail.

Sheriff's Inspector Guido Battaglia arrested her Saturday at her home, 794 Del Ganado road.

More than 100 million people, 82 per cent of all people 12 years of age and over, read a newspaper on an average day.

The measure now goes to the Senate Finance Committee.

It calls for construction of a statewide aqueduct to export northern surplus water out of the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta as far south as San Diego.

Under a further revision by the governor, tideland oil revenue set aside for water development would have to be spent on the Feather River Project ahead of the bonds.

In addition, up to 250 million dollars in bonds would be made available for other export projects or for local facilities, at the discretion of the state Water Resources Department. Northern senators lost out, with one major exception, on a series of amendments aimed chiefly at protecting the water rights of their areas.

Sen. George Miller Jr. (D-Martinez) heatedly told off the committee after it rejected his proposals.

He wanted a declaration of state policy to provide an adequate supply of water to meet the needs, present and future, of the counties and watersheds of origin—all in the north. Miller also sought assurances that the state would build additional facilities for delta water users at no cost to them if it became necessary to conserve their water.

Farmer Foes Kill Brown's Labor Proposal

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Defeat and delay told the story today on Gov. Edmund G. Brown's labor relations and tax programs.

The legislation to repeal the jurisdictional strike act and write sweeping new terms was rejected by the Senate Labor Committee, 5-2. It was Brown's second major setback of the session.

The Assembly Ways and Means Committee approved the governor's proposal to raise beer taxes from two to seven cents a gallon.

ASSIGNED TO STUDY

The Senate Finance Committee, however, assigned all of his tax measures to a subcommittee for study.

This delay indicated the fate of the administration's 256 million-dollar tax plan won't be decided until the closing weeks of the 1959 Legislature. Adjournment, by law, is June 19.

More than 1,000 opponents of the labor relations bill jammed the Assembly chamber—no committee room was big enough—and spilled out into the hall for the Senate committee hearing yesterday.

FARMERS KILL IT

Farmers carried the measure down, just as their objections helped kill Brown's minimum wage bill. They contended it would result in unionization of agricultural workers.

Only Assemblyman Allen Miller (D-San Fernando), who introduced the legislation, and Roger McAfee, 20-year-old Fresno farmer, spoke for it. Organized labor remained silent.

The bill sought to set up a procedure by which employees in intra-state commerce could select unions to represent them.

COURT INJUNCTIONS

It also would have repealed present provisions which permit employers to get court injunctions against jurisdictional disputes.

A spokesman for the California Lima Bean Growers Assn. spelled out the fears of a parade of farm witnesses. The bill, he said, was "an engraved invitation for labor unions to organize farm labor."

Gilford Rowland, representing Federated Employers of San Francisco, charged the terms were "rigged entirely for labor."

Miller denied this, and asserted that employers have abused the use of injunctive relief.

McAfee, his lone supporter, described corporation farmers on the west side of the San Joaquin Valley as the leading opponents to the bill. He said the measure would help raise farm workers' standard of living.

NOVATO STUDENTS ARE GOOD HURLERS, LEAPERS

Novato school children, who recently finished taking a series of physical fitness tests, have proved that they can, on the average, throw a softball farther and jump a greater distance than the national average for their age groups.

But when it comes to pull-ups, they're a bit weak, the tests revealed. In the other events—push-ups and sit-ups—the Novato school children compared favorably with the national norm.

So reported Earl Farris, principal of Marion School, who helped coordinate the tests for fourth through sixth grades at Lu Sutton and West Novato Schools, fifth and sixth grades at Marion and Olive Schools, and seventh and eighth grades at Hill School.

Bill To Tax Defense Plant Equipment Dead For 2 Years

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The author of a bill to tax equipment of California defense plants said today the measure is dead for at least two years.

The Senate Revenue and Taxation Committee shelved the legislation yesterday, recommending that the so-called possessory tax question be studied by the Senate Interim Committee on Interstate Commerce.

The Assembly-passed bill would have meant more than 20 million dollars in taxes to cities, counties and local school districts. Assemblyman Thomas J. MacBride (D-Sacramento) said he saw no hope of reviving his measure this session.

MacBride sought to authorize a possessory interest tax on equipment and materials that the federal government takes title to while the items are used for defense contract work. It would most affect missile, aircraft and electronics industries with defense contracts.

Many areas levied the tax until 1958, when the state Supreme Court ruled it was illegal without legislative authorization.

The bill was supported by the California Supervisors Assn., the League of California Cities and the California Teachers Assn., among others.

They said many school districts would be in difficulties without possessory interest tax funds.

The only witness to testify against the measure was John Canaday of Lockheed Aircraft Corp. He said no other state has passed a possessory interest tax this year while nine states defeated such bills.

Admits Shoplifting

Mrs. Bessie Poer Grizard, 30, of 590 Las Colindas road, Terra Linda, admitted yesterday she tried to shoplift several items from Macy's in San Rafael last Friday. She will be sentenced at 3:30 p.m. on June 8 in Marin Municipal Court.

The telescope was invented in 1608.

School Tax Bill Rejected

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A proposal to increase the maximum tax rate which California school districts may charge has been rejected by the state Senate Taxation Committee.

The upper house group sent to an interim committee for two years of study a bill by Sen. Virgil O'Sullivan (D-Williams) which would have increased school maximum tax rates to what O'Sullivan called a "more realistic figure."

The present maximums were enacted more than 20 years ago. They may be exceeded if the citizens of a district approve and many schools have imposed special "override" taxes with voter approval.

Robert McKay of the California Teachers Assn. said the present maximums were "totally inadequate."

He said tax hikes were approved by local voters in about 85 per cent of the cases but he claimed that special elections were expensive and inconvenient.

However, several committee members objected to permitting a school district to increase its taxes when its citizens had turned down a tax hike at an election.

Larkspur Planners To Study 2 Maps

Tentative maps of Greenbrae Units 12 and 15 will be submitted by the Schultz Co. to the Larkspur Planning Commission tonight at an 8 o'clock meeting in Larkspur City Hall.

The planners also will receive a city council letter requesting new hearings on the status of the Coleman estate property adjacent to Hillview Gardens, with a view toward returning its zoning from commercial to one-family residential.

Supervisors Listen To Pleas For Funds

The county board of supervisors, keeper of the county pocketbook, yesterday afternoon listened to the pleas of 18 organizations that believe they deserve a portion of the promotional budget.

The supervisors decided they would vote at 1 p.m. Monday on each request.

By law, the county may grant money to organizations for promotion and development of the county. An attorney general's opinion of last year specifically excludes grants to organizations such as the Girl Scouts, considered to be in the "good works" category.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman added his own criterion. The supervisors must decide, Fusselman said, if the organization's efforts "induce immigration."

The Marin County Taxpayers Assn., entering a request for the first time this year, asked for $5,000. President P. J. Rowland declared the association's efforts to keep Marin's tax rate down had the effect of "inviting immigration into the county." The money would go toward office supplies, telephones and to finance protests before public bodies—such as the board of supervisors—Rowland said.

Largest request came from the Marin Development Foundation. The $9,000 requested would pay for approximately half of its next year's budget.

The Redwood Empire Assn., which got $4,000 during the current fiscal year, asked for $6,650 next year.

The San Rafael Chamber of Commerce entered a request for $3,500. It was $1,500 less than the current year because the "Marvelous Marin" folder put out by the chamber's Visitors Bureau was a one-time expense.

Junior Museum of Marin requested $2,000, compared with $500 received this year. S. Thompson Walker, director, said the museum "has a total budget need of $18,000 and has been operating on a $12,000 budget."

"We are in a tight spot, but not about to fold," Walker said.

Other requested grants included: Marin County Historical Society, $1,500; Marin Committee on History and Landmarks, Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West (to rehabilitate the Old Mill in Mill Valley), $1,200; Marin Music Chest, $1,000 and Symphony Guild of Marin, $1,000.

Five hundred dollar requests were received from the California State Chamber of Commerce, Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce, San Francisco Bay Area Council, Sausalito Regatta and West Marin Livestock Show.

Also requested: 4-H Club District Fair (for parade), $350; Marine Exchange, $250; Veterans Memorial Day, $100; California Marin Parks and Harbors Assn., $100.

Helicopters help telephone men do an economical job for you

Flying phone crews save time, money getting new lines into use

Over rugged, roadless country, phone men looked for sites for new radio-relay towers to carry your telephone calls. Rather than build costly roads, they used a helicopter to air lift themselves and their heavy radio test gear. In five months, they covered almost ten thousand miles in the air and wrapped up a job that could have taken a year. It cut the cost of the job in half. And flying crews aren't the only phone people who work with time- and money-saving equipment. Here in town, you'll see us using everything from giant pole setters to midget wire crimpers. On each and every phone job, we look for the most economical way to do it—look for the way that will give you the most value for your telephone dollar.

Music Chest's Report Tea Slated May 27

District chairmen and workers in the current Marin Music Chest's annual summer concert series subscription drive will meet at the home of Miss Louise A. Boyd in San Rafael, Wednesday afternoon, May 27, 2 o'clock to hear the outcome of their six week's effort in obtaining subscription to the Music Chest concert season, which opens Sunday afternoon, June 21 in Forest Meadows, San Rafael with Luboshutz and Nemenoff, famed duo pianists.

It is important that all chairmen and workers attend this Report Tea, Mrs. George Metcalfe county drive chairman stated. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Hugh Middleton, Kentfield tea chairman, or through county headquarters for the Music Chest, Hoy's, San Rafael.

Following the business meeting, at which Mrs. Metcalfe will preside, a program will be given by last year's scholarship winners, Claudia Colburn, soprano; Tom Reynolds, violin; Wendy Eisler, flute; Karl Herreshoff, classic guitarist and Robert Lamb, piano.

Completed campaign books are to be turned into county headquarters on or before May 27, Mrs. Metcalfe stated. Any outstanding money from districts should be reported, at the tea. Headquarters will remain open through May to receive completed books and subscriptions from anyone who has not been contacted during the drive.

Second concert takes place July 19, featuring Elizabeth

Three Scout Troops Have Dance Party

A folk dance party culminating 14 weeks of instruction for three Girl Scout troops by Mrs. Robert Rohner was held at her home, 17 Parkside Court, San Anselmo. The three Scout troops, dressed in colorful costumes, were hostesses to each other. Each troop taught a new dance to the group, thereby completing their folk dancers badge. A thank you gift was chosen by the girls and presented to Mrs. Rohner by the three troops.

Those present were: Terra Linda's troop 104, Anna Huck, Becky Staumen, Diane Borward, Marsha Carroll, Pam Titus and leaders Mrs. Robert Huck and Mrs. Dan Barnard.

Northgate Group Has Market Day At Garden Center

It will be "Market Day" tomorrow at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross. A dozen gaily decorated booths, sponsored by Northgate Group, will offer fresh fruit and vegetables, cakes and home baked breads, home-made ice cream, candy and root beer. Others will stock plants and flowers, gifts, records and sheet music and the "white elephant variety."

A "Silver Dollar Luncheon" will be served by colorfully dressed "Harvey Girls, 1959 Marin County Edition." Hot and cold foods will also be available a la carte. Madame Melba, billed as a "clairvoyant extraordinary," will be present, along with a photograph and guessing booth.

Geraniums Subject For Garden Section

When the Garden Section of the Tamalpais Centre Women's Club holds its final meeting of the club year on Friday at the clubhouse the program will be on "Those Belittled, Beloved Geraniums." Each member is asked to bring specimens of her favorite geranium. Display tables will be set up for the Zonal Geraniums, Scented Leaf, Vining and Ivy, Martha Washington or Pelargoniums and for favorite arrangements using geraniums.

Mrs. John W. Carrothers, chairman, will conduct a business meeting at 1 p.m. Dessert and coffee will be served by Mesdames Clarence Herkner, Emile Reillac and Linton Whitby.

Junior Music Club

Tamalpais Junior Music Club of which Mesdames John Hoag and Robert Betette are the sponsors, and Bonnie Hoag the president, met recently at Redwood High School. Piano selections were played by Mary Elliott, Helen Hart, Carol Shenson, Claudia Marker, Elizabeth Ford, Anne Fulkerson, Claudia Kling, John Hoag and Bonnie Hoag. Lynn Fulkerson played a flute solo.

Program of Classical Ballet To Be Viewed in Mill Valley

Les Petites Ballerines, a program of classical ballet, directed by Joan Edgerton Grigg will be presented as a scholarship benefit by the Outdoor Art Club on May 23 at 8 p.m. in Park school auditorium in Mill Valley.

Mrs. Eugene Heide is general chairman for the affair, and Mrs. Preston Burris is representing the club. Handling tickets for the show is Mrs. George O. Roemer, and tickets are also on sale at the R and M Style Shop and Marin Music Center in Mill Valley.

According to Mrs. Grigg, the program is in three sections with the first entitled "classic" being performed to music from the "Good Humored Ladies" by Scarlatti-Tomassini, and the last, "La Boutique Fantasque" to music by Rossini-Respighi. Appearing between the ballet performances will be Barry Mineah's boys' choir.

Choreography and dance direction are being done by Mrs. Grigg, a former member of the San Francisco Ballet. Costumes have been designed by Mrs. Stephen Kramer, and supervised by Mesdames Hunter Sterne, Gilbert Darroch and Robley Spaulding. Hunter Sterne and Conrad Kloh are in charge of tape recording.

Strawberry Royalty To Reign Saturday

Robert Coffman and Karen Brodgar, sixth graders at Strawberry Point school have been chosen to reign as king and queen of the Strawberry Point Festival starting Saturday at the school at 1 p.m.

The two were elevated to their regal positions by winning an essay contest on "Why I would like to be king (or queen) of the Festival." Essays were judged on originality and imagination by Mrs. C. W. Young, member of the Parent-Teachers Association Council, and G. R. McConnell, superintendent of Mill Valley public schools.

Karen has attended the school since she entered kindergarten in 1952, the year the school opened. She represents the first group to have completed all grades in the school. A circus theme is being carried out at this year's festival, which is sponsored annually by the Strawberry Point P.T.A.

Femineers Mark Ninth Anniversary

Time To Take Close Look At Government Paychecks

Personal income in California during 1958 rose nearly a billion 250 million dollars above 1957's total, a report just released by the State Department of Finance shows.

This is an increase of approximately 3.5 per cent, twice the percentage gain experienced nationwide.

The gain is a fine indication of the financial firmness of our state's economy. It also indicates the great growth under way in the state.

But the figures have some discouraging aspects and a warning or two. Wages and salaries in the mining industry declined 4.2 per cent. Transportation was off 2.9 per cent and trade dipped several tenths of one per cent.

There were spectacular gains, however, and these should come as the warning. Largest increase in wages and salary during 1958 was in state and local government. These employees received 250 million dollars more last year than in the year before, a whopping increase of 12.2 per cent.

Second highest classification was in the federal government's civilian employees, up nearly 100 million dollars, for a 7.4 per cent gain. Highest in a non-governmental classification was in construction, which gained 6.6 per cent, barely nosing out the military, which increased 6.5 per cent.

Thus three of the four top gainers are tax-supported classifications—and who would say the construction industry isn't tax supported, although not tax subsidized.

When more than 20 per cent of the state's wages and salaries are being paid to governmental employees, and they are growing faster than other segments of the economy, it's time we took a closer look.

The time is now!

Bridge Lanes Should Be Kept Clear

In an adjacent column, one of our readers deploras the situation in which the bridge commuters found themselves last week—stalled in bumper-to-bumper traffic because a motion picture company was using the Golden Gate bridge to take a picture of a submarine.

We agree with our fuming reader that the bridge is designed to get people across the Golden Gate, not for the convenience of a motion picture crew.

As he points out, paint crews and other repair crews on the span respect the problems of the commuter and don't block the lanes during rush hours. Why, he asks, shouldn't other agencies?

We think all agencies should. What's more, if the bridge board of directors hasn't already passed a resolution instructing the general manager to make certain the lanes are free, it should be done.

If such instructions do exist, steps should be taken to enforce them.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

OTHER PEOPLE HAVE RIGHTS, TOO!

Nearly 1,000 commuters were held up for 25 minutes in Grand Central Station during the rush hour recently.

It all happened because an engineer of one of the trains insisted that a workman wash the dirty windows of his locomotive before it departed. Meanwhile the train-load of home-bound commuters just sat until a window washer could be found.

By the time the delayed train finally got under way, several other trains were thrown off schedule, traffic jams bottlenecked stations and frustrated wives burned up many dinners.

Embarrassed railroad officials admitted that although it was not the duty of the engineer to clean windows, he showed poor judgment and "lack of spirit" in being so inconsiderate of the rights of others.

Most of us are quick to insist on our own rights but often too slow in making allowance for those of others. The best way to keep a sense of balance is to follow the divine standard of Christ:

"All things whatsoever you would that men should do to you, do you also to them." (Matthew 7:12)

Help me to show consideration for the rights of others while insisting on my own, O Lord.

Insurance Company Is Teaching Its Employees How To Retire

NEW YORK (AP)—The problem of letting go is very hard.

It is hardest, of course, on the individual who reaches a corporate retirement age and still wants to keep on working, usually for the same corporation.

The main loyalty of his life outside his family has been tied to his job. He often feels he has been able to adjust better to the changing demands of his job than to those at home. Sometimes, as he is needed less at home when the children are on their own, he feels the need to be bigger at his office.

Then, usually at 65, the office doesn't need him any more.

What is done to cushion a faithful employee against the stunning fact that he is no longer a corporate necessity?

Few corporations today do more than give him a corporate farewell. The trend, however, is the other way.

One example is a pre-retirement program established five years ago by Mutual of New York, one of America's largest insurance companies. They set up a course among their employees on how to stop work, how to let go.

The idea was put into effect by vice president George Wilgus, personnel executive. He felt that although a survey showed two thirds of major U.S. companies do something to help employees on the edge of retirement, most of them don't cushion the blow enough.

His solution?

A YEAR before retirement an employee is taught how to retire. He can take a day a week off from his job. He can attend on company time six to seven monthly classes on how to face up to the problems of retirement.

The classes include discussion on where to live, how to handle financial responsibilities, health problems, the development of hobbies, the prospect of taking other jobs.

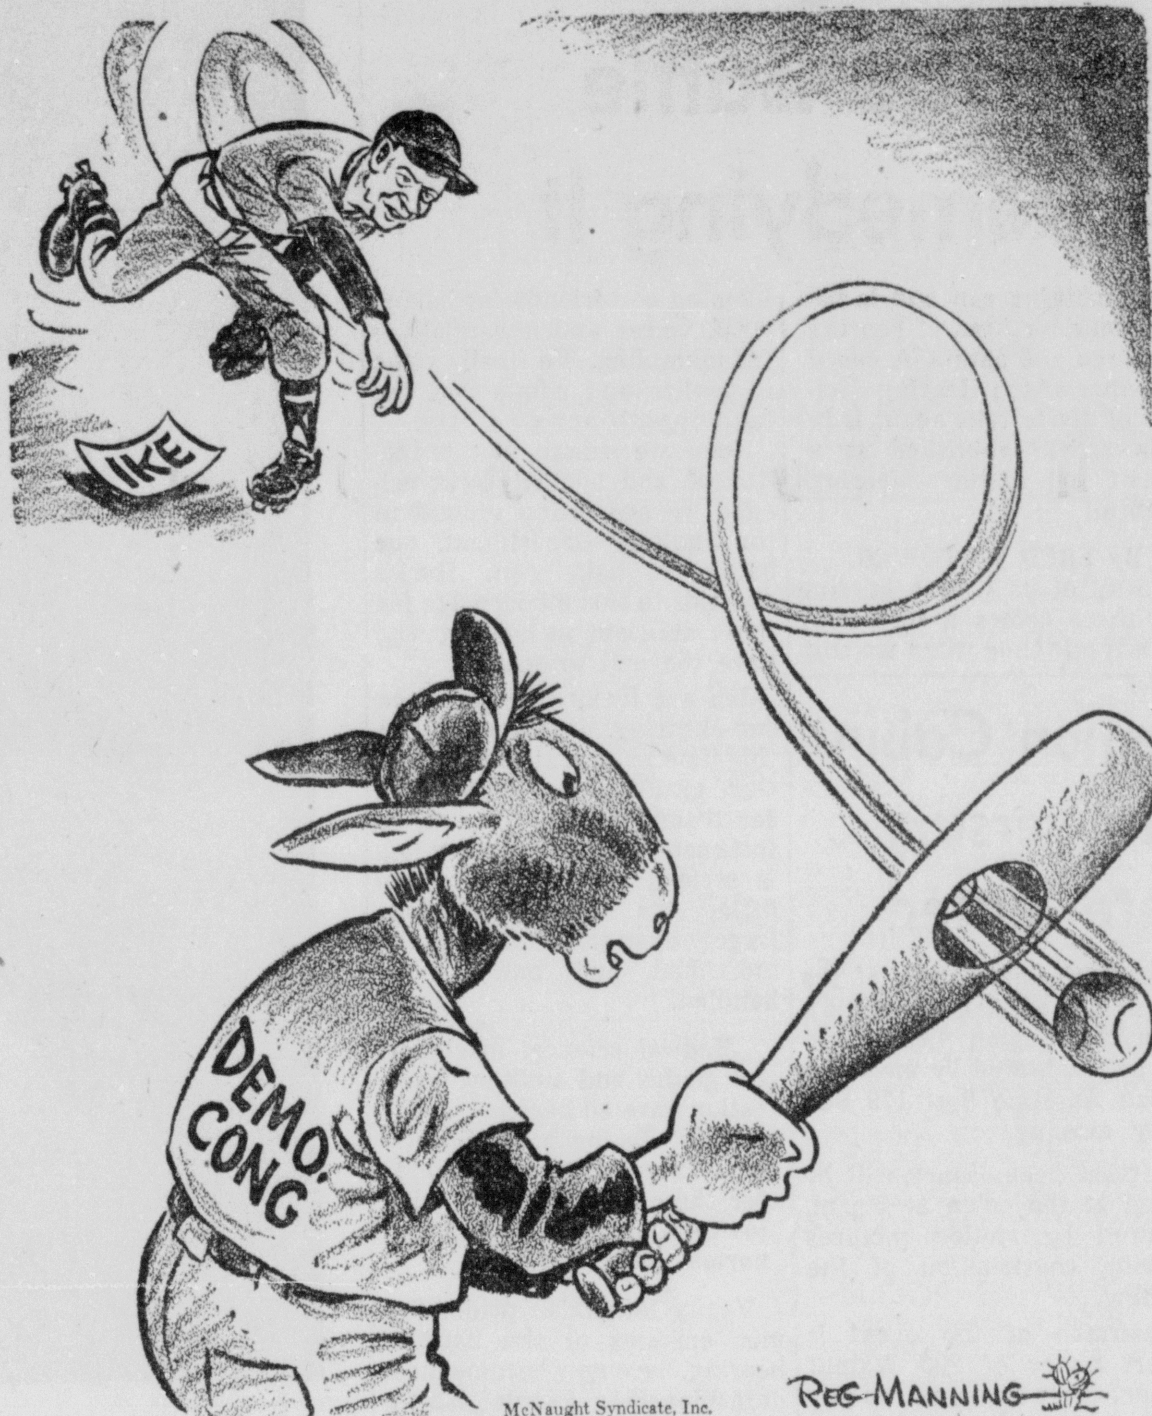

"THESE PEOPLE can and want to be useful to themselves and to society," said Wilgus. "All they need is a little steering before they leave their jobs."

"The human cry now is: it is terrible to retire people. We try to show them what they can do to be happy."

What are the results?

"The main benefit is that they think in advance on a systematic basis about the problems of retirement," said Wilgus.

Keep Bridge Clear At Commute Time

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The enclosed clip from the I-J (Movie Crew Causes Big Bridge Jam) is just one more instance of the incompetent management of the traffic situation on the Golden Gate Bridge. I saw the situation developing as I crossed the bridge about 7:15 a.m. that morning, as I have seen it on every occasion that the bridge management has elected to permit the bridge to be used during the morning rush hours for activity that belong only out side rush hours.

Since the citizenry of Marin can not look to the San Francisco newspapers to take up crudgels in their behalf to ameliorate the toll plaza situation and the foolishness on the bridge, we can only turn to you for the necessary guide to public opinion that may in time bring the toll takers down to the level of the present day auto, give them some means that was thought of some time since the bridge was built to clip the serially numbered little rectangle off the commute card and convince the directors of the bridge that it is there to take care of the people who pay toll and that a steady flow of traffic is desirable.

To give the devil his due, may I compliment the directors on the physical condition of the bridge, the road way is clean and the metal well painted, two functions that they have learned to start and stop when the big flow of traffic is not on the bridge.

Gallinas Village Official Take Things For Granted Once Too Often

Harry W. Thomas, one of the five directors of Gallinas Village Community Services District, has always considered himself an upright, law-abiding citizen. But his faith in himself was momentarily shaken last Wednesday night. He was hauled off to the San Anselmo police department on suspicion of auto theft.

Harry's harrowing experience began when his Volkswagen developed clutch trouble earlier in the day. He made a service appointment with Town and Country Motors, San Rafael Volkswagen agency, and was assured he could borrow a courtesy car during repairs.

When Thomas had his car towed to the shop that evening, he found the agency closed. Parked in front was a sleek little Karman Ghia convertible, with the key in the ignition slot.

Assuming this to be the courtesy car, Thomas hopped in and drove home. After dinner, still driving the Ghia, he picked up several other directors of the service district and took them to San Anselmo for a conference with landscape architect William L. Kapranos.

Everyone admired the Ghia, and Thomas agreed it was pretty classy for a courtesy car.

But no one liked it as much as its owner, Laurie Felton, general manager of Town and Country Motors.

While Thomas and his colleagues were talking landscaper with Kapranos, Felton was reporting to police that his convertible had been stolen virtually from under his nose.

A bulletin was sent out, and San Anselmo police eventually located the parked vehicle. They kept it under surveillance, then watched with interest when Thomas and company appeared.

The district directors piled in and, still marveling at the Ghia, started the return trip to Santa Venetia. Several minutes later, a sputtering red-faced Thomas was being led to the police station, protesting his innocence all the way.

The comedy of errors was resolved when Felton finally was located. And Thomas, vowing never again to assume anything, was restored to his dignity as a pillar of Gallinas Village officialdom.

IT WAS LIKE OLD times last week when letter carrier John Guendner stepped out of the Larkspur Post Office to start his morning rounds and found himself attacked by crows.

Groaning "Not again!," Guendner quickly ducked back inside. It had happened last year, too, but he had chalked it up as a once-in-a-lifetime experience.

No such luck. He ventured meekly outside again, and down swooped two crows like a pair of dive bombers.

Guendner wasn't the only victim. Al de Vincenzi, a fellow carrier, suffered the same fate—and they're still putting up with it.

"The crows sit out side on a wire and wait for them," says Postmaster Llewellyn D. Crandall. "Then as soon as one of them appears, they attack. They follow them for a block or more. I've never seen anything so silly."

"I don't know why they should pick on carriers," he said. "But dogs and other animals do, so I guess they want to get in the act, too. These two crows work together, and their technique improves with time."

Balanced Budget Isn't Full Answer For Continued Inflation

It is still touch and go whether the President will get from this Congress exactly the budget he has asked for. But on the broad principles which he has adopted, he seems now to be assured of support.

These principles are that the next budget shall be balanced approximately and that this shall be done not by raising taxes, but by holding down military and civilian expenditures.

For the time being the battle the President is waging against inflation is going reasonably well, in that the price level is on the whole standing still.

Nevertheless, the news from the money markets gives little support to the idea that the battle against inflation is being won.

THE TREASURY is having to pay very high rates for very short term money. The long term bond market is depressed while stocks and real estate are booming.

These are the classic signs of inflation, that is to say, of a lack of confidence that money will conserve its purchasing power. When there is this lack of confidence, people prefer to own tangible goods, as they do when they buy equity shares, to having what are promises to pay dollars in the future.

The behavior of the markets reflects the judgments of the great investing institutions with their expert advisors. These markets are, therefore, a kind of running Gallup Poll in which those who are questioned back their opinions with their money. They are saying that they expect a continuing inflation.

WHEN WE ASK ourselves what is the basis of this pessimism, we must begin by remembering that there is no precise answer to this question. We are dealing with a situation where a preponderant majority of investors not only in this country but also abroad have come to the same practical conclusion, though not necessarily for the same reasons.

The same conclusion they have come to is quite evidently that in the battle against inflation the President has not produced a policy that is good for more than the next budget.

It may be that the 1960 budget can be made to balance, though even this takes a certain amount of finesse in the bookkeeping. But if this particular budget is balanced, it will be done not by reducing expenditures, but by postponing them.

If we look at our national commitments, it is unfortunately all too probable that our position as a whole is going to be out of balance for years to come.

OUR NATIONAL commitments are for defense, for internal development, for welfare and public facilities. Lined up against these commitments we also have commitments to the farmers and to the veterans and to the taxpayers, who are expecting a tax reduction.

There is no reason whatever to think that we shall be able to spend less. On the contrary, almost surely we shall feel compelled to spend more.

The prospects in defense and in internal civilian improvements make it virtually certain that with our present tax structure and our normal rate of growth, there will be a heavy pressure against the balance of the budget.

IS THERE A remedy? Certainly there is no simple and easy one.

What must come first, however, is to stop pretending that the 1960 budget is a genuine and adequate answer to the problem of inflation.

Then we have to begin defining and posing the real questions which will confront us. They arrive from the fact that in order to balance the budget against the rising expenditures which are inevitable, we must brace ourselves to the grim, the politically untouchable and unspeakable truth that we shall have to raise more taxes.

Summer Camp Leader Asks Doc To 'Hush' On Bad Camp Risks

A man who directs a big summer camp wants me to hush. "I know," he writes, "that there are badly led and inadequate summer camps. Professional camp workers are trying to do something about them. But, Dr. Barbour, you shouldn't tell parents about the bad camps. You alarm them too much. The risks really are not great. On the subject of summer camps you should hush up."

What do you think, friends? Should I hush up? I've waited for professional camp workers to get reasonable safety regulations established in all camps. They've failed. I've waited for them to push through legislation in our states. Legislation to set up good standards for children's camps. Very little has been accomplished.

Here are some children I can't forget. One is a boy who is permanently paralyzed. He was as healthy and active as your son or mine. But he went to a badly led camp. A camp leader put him on a wild, untrained horse. He did it for kicks. The boy was thrown. His spine was broken.

Another is a little girl who drowned. The camp she attended had a bad swimming pool. It was unfiltered, green and scummy. The lifeguard was careless. He did not use the buddy system for swimmers. No one saw her drown in the murky depths.

Another is a boy who died of pneumonia. He'd have recovered if the camp leader had been alert to health symptoms. Another is a group of four little boys who died in a lake. Their camp leader let them take out a big canoe. They couldn't swim. It capsized.

I think I should tell about camp risks. Don't you? I must warn you to pick your children's summer camps carefully. There are good camps and there are bad ones. Patronize only the good ones.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "The children ride to and from our summer camp in old trucks. Do you consider this safe?"

Mrs. L. D. R.

(A) No. A minor accident could spill the children out, and kill them. Camps should transport children in the same sort of all-steel safety buses schools use.

Legion Cabin Anniversary Fete Slated

The 25th anniversary of the dedication of San Anselmo's American Legion Log Cabin will be celebrated by members of San Anselmo Post 179 Saturday evening.

A roast beef dinner will be served at the cabin at 7 p.m. followed by motion pictures showing construction of the building.

Chairman of the event is Robert Slyter of 200 Walnut avenue, Corte Madera, who was commander of the post in 1934 when the cabin was built.

During the last quarter-century the rustic cabin, built by post members, has become a well-known landmark. The cabin is situated in a grove of trees at the northern end of what is now the San Anselmo City Park and has been the meeting place for many organizations over the years.

In addition to the anniversary celebration, 26 members of Post 179 will receive their certificates and emblems for 40 continuous years of membership in the Legion. Those receiving this award include Manuel D. Alberigi, Clifton E. Cordes, Wilford P. Duhamel, Charles A. Elliott, Frederick Dearing, Louis G. Giambastiani, Sanford L. Harris, Joseph Horick, Walter Johnson, Almon C. Jones, Elmer J. Jones, Jean Lestanguet, Harvey Marsh, Hamilton C. Martin Sr., John H. Mundo, William W. ## Billboard Control Law Amended

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A bill regulating billboards along California's scenic highways has been amended to compensate landowners for loss of advertising revenues.

Sen. John J. Hollister (D-Golden State) introduced the amendment on the Senate floor yesterday. It was approved over the objections of the author, Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael).

Hollister said the state should pay for what it takes away from property owners. McCarthy said the public built the freeways and should have the right to regulate them.

blaming our friends for having weak voices and our relatives for mumbling. We finally come to realize and admit that the fault is with our own ears.

Once we submit to this realization and honestly acknowledge we are losing ground in the auditory department, our battle is half won. Help abounds in this modern age for those deficient in hearing who have the will to seek it.

We are lucky to experience our hearing impairments in this time of scientific progress. Our grandfathers with their ear trumpets were not half so fortunate. While a hearing loss is serious and not to be belittled, its severity depends largely upon the attitude of the individual and how it is handled.

Medical science, mechanical genius and auditory education have all become "good friends" to the hard-of-hearing. They make it possible for those who have the will to continue living entirely normal lives.

Vanity and false pride, former enemies of the hard-of-hearing, have now become most unfashionable. People have grown up in their attitude toward such things as hearing aids and glasses. Society has come rather to lift an eye brow on the fellow who does nothing to improve his hearing.

Thanks to advancement in lip reading education, improvements in hearing aids and the skill of medical surgery to correct certain types of hearing impairment, the outlook is bright indeed for those who face deficiencies now and in the future.

Here in Marin County all of these sources of better hearing are available for those interested.

For example, early in 1954 a group of students in the College of Marin lip-reading class continued a discussion long after the seminar was over.

Out of this class grew the idea of a community organization devoted to the needs of the hearing handicapped. In 1955, the Hearing Society of Marin began, incorporating as the Hearing Society of Marin, Inc., on Oct. 8, 1956.

This society was organized to promote through educational and recreational means the welfare of children and adults with impaired hearing.

Since then, enrollment in lip-reading classes, encouraged by the society, increased during the last two years.

A school survey, begun more than a year ago, is being conducted with the cooperation and assistance of the society and the state Department of Education. This will determine the number of hearing-handicapped children in Marin schools and what educational facilities exist to meet their needs.

Although the survey is still going on, some results already have been achieved. The county board of education has provided funds to enlarge the existing class for the deaf at the Marineland School and funds have been allocated for the formation of a class for the hard of hearing.

The Hearing Society's mailing address is Box 113, Corte Madera. The society welcomes any questions or suggestions from interested members of the community.

Novato School Location Disapproved

The Marin County planning staff has disapproved a Novato school site because county road plans call for extension of a road across the site.

Trustees of the Novato Unified School District, who recently agreed to purchase the 10-acre Connell property off South Novato boulevard at $6,000 an acre, have been notified of the planning staff's disapproval. Planning Director Mary Summers told the planning commission yesterday.

The commission postponed consideration of the site question until June 1, to allow the school board to discuss the matter and re-evaluate its need for the site.

The planners' objections to the site stem from the fact that it lies in the path of an extension of Hill avenue to intersect South Novato boulevard across from Yukon way, as proposed in the North Marin streets and highways plan.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, May 19, the 139th day of the year, with 226 more days in 1959.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The morning stars are Mercury and Saturn.

The evening stars are Jupiter, Venus and Mars.

On this date in history:

In 1536, Anne Boleyn, second wife of Henry the Eighth, was beheaded. Queen Anne was the mother of the first Queen Elizabeth of England.

In 1898, the Spanish fleet entered Santiago Harbor, Cuba. It was commanded by Admiral Pascual Cervera.

In 1928, 51 frogs entered the frog jumping jubilee of Calaveras County, California. The winning frog jumped three feet, 4 inches. The event is held each year in commemoration of Mark Twain's classic story called "The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County."

In 1943, Britain joined us in the war against Japan. The then prime minister, Winston Churchill, promised full partnership in a speech before a

— Here's how to work it:

AXYDLBAAXR is LONGFELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE—EXECUTION

No. 31617
Sheriff's Office,
County of Marin,
State of California—ss.
No. 27382.

BY VIRTUE of an execution issued out of the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of MARIN, in an action wherein Emily Sanders, plaintiff, and Clark Sanders, defendant, upon a judgment rendered on the 10th day of January, 1958, in favor of said Emily Sanders and Wallace S. Myers and against said Clark Sanders, for the sum of Six Hundred and Fifty and 00/100 Dollars, in Lawful Money of the United States, with costs and interest, I have this day levied upon all the right, title, claim, and interest of said defendant, Clark Sanders in and to that real property situated at 3406 1/2 Cortez Madera, County of Marin, State of California, described as follows, to wit:

All the real property situated in the Town of Corte Madera, County of Marin, State of California, described as follows:
All of Lot 11 as shown on that certain map entitled "Map of Olney Tract Corte Madera Marin County, Cal." filed April 12, 1947 in volume 6 of Maps at Page 28, Marin County Records, except the following described parcel:
BEGINNING at the North-easterly corner of Lot 11, as said lot is shown on that certain map entitled "Map of Olney Tract Corte Madera Marin County, Cal." filed April 12, 1947 in volume 6 of Maps at Page 28, Marin County Records, except the following described parcel:

Beginning at the North-easterly corner of Lot 11, as said lot is shown on that certain map entitled "Map of Olney Tract Corte Madera Marin County, Cal." filed April 12, 1947 in volume 6 of Maps at Page 28, Marin County Records, running thence from said point of beginning, along the Northerly line of said Lot 11, South 73° 30' 30" West 170.00 ft.; thence leaving said lot and crossing said lot, South 5° 26' 10" East 100.00 ft.; thence 41' West 151.27 ft.; to a point in the Southerly line thereof; thence along said Southerly line, East 130 ft.; to a point in the Southerly line of said road easement; thence along said center line, Northerly on a curve to the right, of radius 50 ft., whose center bears due West, through a central angle of 61° 37' 30" to a point of beginning, thence North 61° 57' 30" East 98.92 ft.; thence on a curve to the left of radius 50 ft., whose center bears North 23° 02' 30" East, through a central angle of 77° 24' 40" to a point of beginning, thence North 5° 26' West 127.00 ft., to the point of beginning.

And notice is hereby given that I will on Monday, the 1st day of June, 1959, at 10 o'clock a.m. of said day, in front of the Court House door of the County of Marin, in the City of San Rafael, in said County, sell to the highest bidder, at PUBLIC AUCTION, for the sum of $600.00, the interest of said defendant, Clark Sanders in and to the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to raise sufficient money to satisfy said judgment, with interest and costs and accruing costs.

Brown Urges Action On Rapid Transit

Endorses Marin Senator's Bill For S. F. Bay Tube

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown wants to see a speed-up of rapid transit planning to avoid "hopeless traffic congestion" ten years from now in California's largest cities.

The Governor yesterday endorsed again a bill by Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) to finance a rapid transit tube across San Francisco Bay if the area's residents vote a master bond issue to build the rest of the system.

Brown said he understood that the bill, which was blocked early this month in the Senate Transportation Committee, would soon be reset for further consideration.

He said he was also watching "with great interest" intensified efforts to develop a rapid transit system in the Los Angeles area.

Quoting state Director of Public Works Robert Bradford, the governor said that "all of our freeway plans are based on the presumption that rapid transit will be a reality in the Bay Area and in Greater Los Angeles within 11 years."

"The state highway planners predict hopeless traffic congestion at peak commute hours by 1970 if a successful means of mass movement of workers to and from the job is not provided by that time," Brown said.

Robber Says Gun Had No Bullets

Whether Leo Anthony Wiest Jr., 20, of San Anselmo will be convicted of first or second degree robbery may hinge on whether an unloaded gun makes any difference.

Wiest, who admitted using a revolver to hold up Kentfield Pharmacy in May of last year, contends the revolver had no bullets inside.

Public Defender Leonard Thomas, representing the young robber, yesterday asked Judge Thomas F. Keating to fix the degree as second degree. Deputy Dist. Atty. Bruce Bales demanded a first degree conviction.

Judge Keating continued the case until next Monday for both attorneys to present more legal arguments.

Maximum penalty for first degree robbery is five years to life, and for second degree, one year to life.

Religious Retreat Attracts 125

Camp Farthest Out, a non-denominational religious group, held a Saturday retreat attended by 125 adults and teenagers at Ralston Memorial Retreat above Mill Valley on the slopes of Mt. Tamalpais, said Mrs. Maryann Karnes of Kentfield, regional chairman.

John Raynold Pitsker of San Anselmo spoke on "The Good News" and "God Calling" at afternoon and evening sessions. Relaxation rhythms were led by Kay Ortmann Pawley. Mrs. Dorothy Pitsker led a creative art session and Mrs. Marjorie Drath of San Rafael led creative writing. Group singing was under the leadership of Vincent Evensen director of Life Dream Christian Students Foundation in Berkeley.

2 Plead Innocent In Perversion Case

Two men, arrested in a San Rafael hotel restroom in March, on charges of perversion, pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

Maurice Lucien Gaillard, 34, of Fairfax and Don Edward Penfold, 31, of San Francisco are to appear in court again on June 15 to have a date set for their trial.

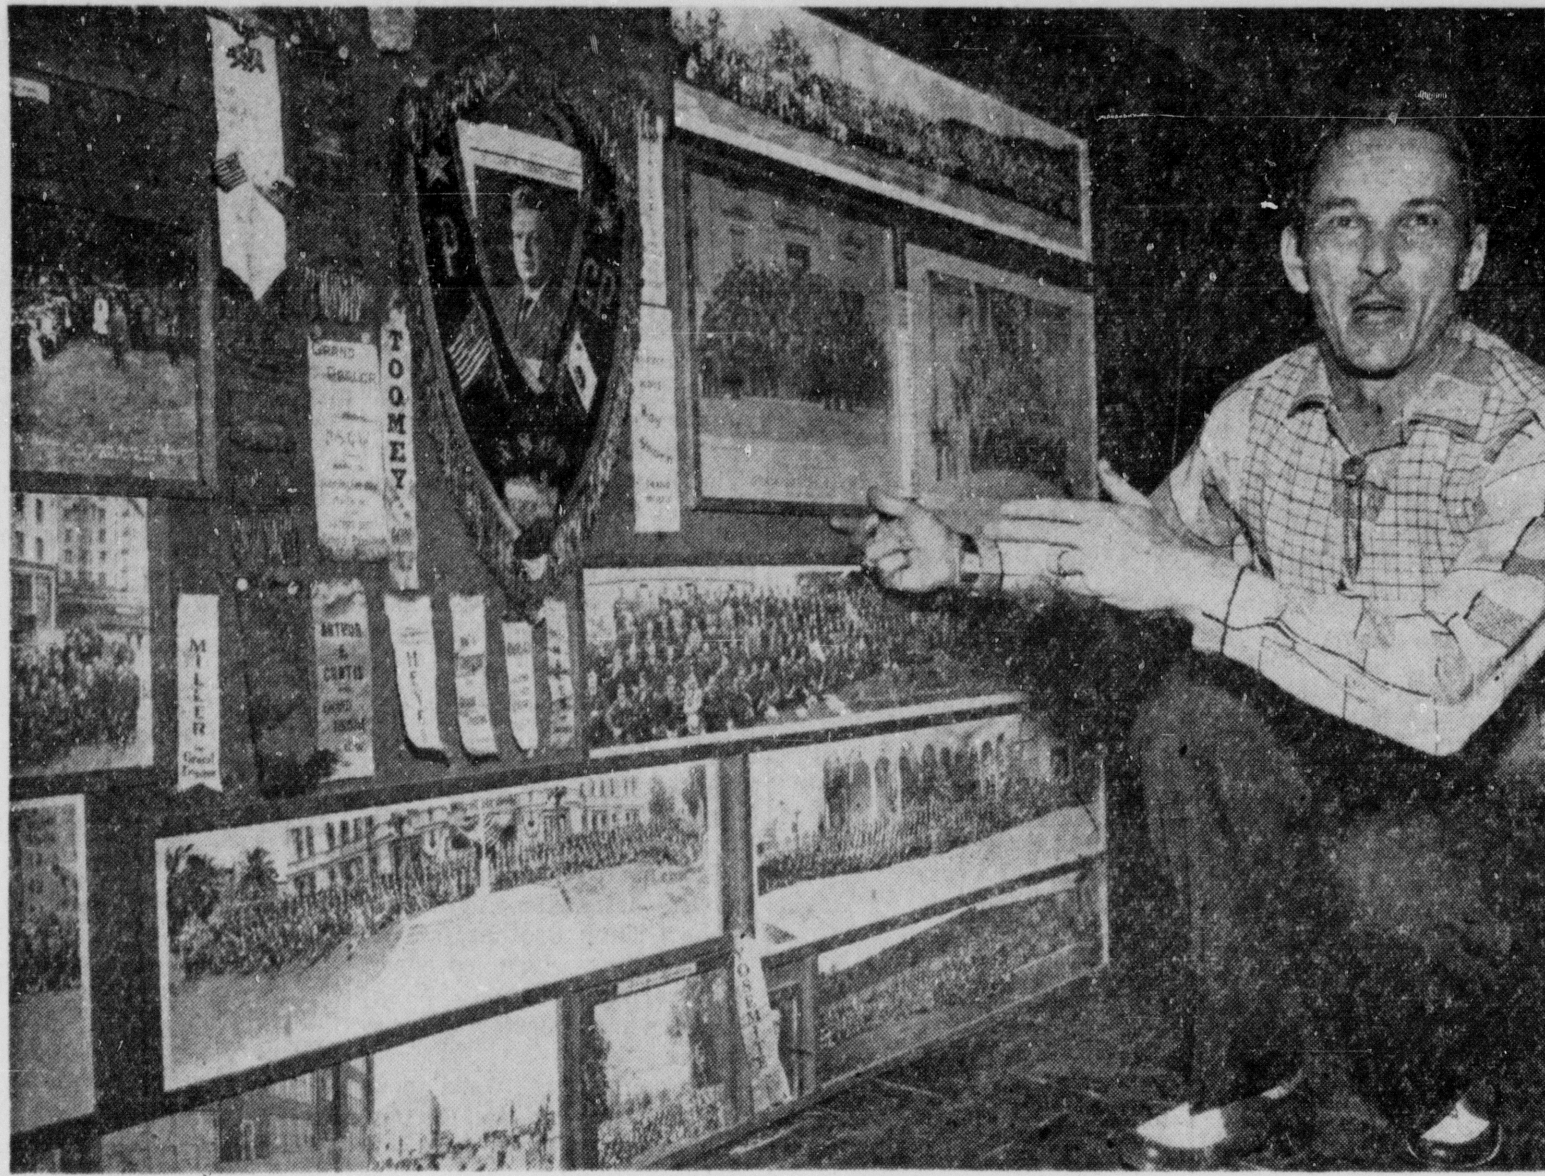

Cases are still pending against two other men caught by San Rafael police along with Penfold and Gaillard on the first raid.

Donald Franklin Davis, 41-year-old radio announcer who was caught in a second raid on the same hotel last month, won a week's continuance before he pleads.

Standard Oil Honors Long-Time Employee

Charles R. McClellan of 58 South Knoll road, Mill Valley, has received a gold emblem with two diamonds in recognition of 35 years continuous service with Standard Oil Co. of California.

McClellan began with the company as a junior clerk in Paso Robles, and is now regional sales engineer with the regional staff in San Francisco. He resides with his wife, Helen, and two grandchildren.

MEMENTOES OF NATIVE SONS — Frank S. Christy of Sacramento, grand marshal of the Native Sons of the Golden West, describes some of the NSGW historical material he has on display at Grand Parlor headquarters at Bermuda Palms. Christy points to picture of first Grand Parlor held in San Rafael, in 1889. Display includes, among other things, original articles of incorporation of the NSGW—drawn up by a Virginian.

CONVENTION MUSEUM

Documents Tell History Of Native Sons Founding

The original articles of incorporation of the Native Sons of the Golden West, signed by its founder — a native of Virginia — are on display at the Bermuda Palms convention hall for the 82nd Native Sons convention.

They are included in a historical collection being presented as a "convention museum" by Frank S. Christy, the Native Sons grand marshal.

Christy, who is a member of Sunset Parlor 26 of Sacramento said he salvaged the document from wreckage of the old supreme court and state library which was razed in 1951.

Christy said he found it "quite by accident." He was there to look through the ruins because he is keenly interested in state history, and always has his eyes open for a historical "find."

He hasn't been idle, as visitors to the museum will find. It will be open to the public any time the convention is not in official session, he said.

Christy has notices tacked up in antique and second-hand stores throughout the nation.

If something of California interest is tucked away on some musty shelf, he's pretty sure to find out about it.

"The most interesting thing about the articles of incorporation," he said, "is that it was signed by a Virginian." The signer was Gen. Albert M. Winn the first mayor of Sacramento. He was the founder of the organization in San Francisco July 11, 1875.

Christy also has on display the first of the Admission Day ribbons made for the Native Sons first observance of that event, Sept. 9, 1875 in San Francisco. "It was found in a second-hand shop in New Orleans," he said. "It took me 16 years to find one."

Also in the collection is the proceedings of the Grand Parlor held in San Rafael in 1889. There are only two copies of this, as far as Christy knows.

All these mementoes of the past are precious reminders to the Native Sons. That's why, Christy said, they are either kept in a vault in Sacramento or in the Native Sons Building in the capital.

Everybody gets a better buy with three new Chevrons

you pay only for the octanes you need!

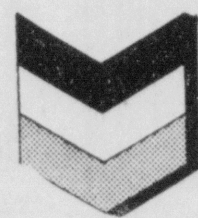

It makes good sense: Three grades give you a wider octane choice than two. Now—whatever car you drive—you can get full performance. And you don't have to buy higher octane gasoline than you can use.

If you need extra high octane, new Chevron Custom Supreme is a grade above today's best premium gasolines—far, far ahead of any other in octane and actual road performance. At the white pump.

If you're a premium-user now, new Chevron Supreme gasoline has all the octanes needed for smooth going anywhere. No need to pay extra for octanes you can't use. At the blue pump.

If you want an economy regular, new Chevron Gasoline delivers new high octane—better performance for most cars on the road—at the regular price. Get the octanes you need without paying a premium! At the red pump.

All three Chevrons are clean-burning, of course! And all have carburetor-cleaning Detergent-Action along with other important fuel qualities to give full driving satisfaction. You get these extras plus the friendly service rated "best in the West" in every independent survey.
